

FOREWORD

After 12 years of invaluable assistance and work, Peter Morris has decided to leave the Asser Institute and to terminate his position with the Review. The Board are extremely grateful to Peter Morris for his dedication and commitment to producing a leading journal in the field of international law, and our best wishes go to him in pursuing future endeavours.

The Board Members would like to welcome Miss Agata Fijalkowski as the new Managing Editor of the Netherlands International Law Review. We are confident that the cooperation and good relations of the NILR will be maintained.

The Board of Editors