

New from Yale

Their Solitary Way

The Puritan Social Ethic in the First Century of Settlement in New England

by Stephen Foster

Puritanism has received much of the blame for the evils of twentieth-century America. But the Puritan immigrants came to New England principally to participate in a viable form of government and had no thought of the future impact of their social ethics. Using rich and varied sources, Mr. Foster perceptively examines the rules of behavior the settlers thought they should follow as members of a civil community, and shows that—despite its many ambiguities and paradoxes—Puritanism in New England was a coherent and truly new way of life. $7.50

St. Thomas More: Action and Contemplation

Proceedings of the Symposium held at St. John's University October 1-10, 1970

edited, with an Introduction, by Richard S. Sylvester

This collection of the four lectures presented during the St. Thomas More Symposium constitutes a unique introduction to the major scholarly debates generated by More's life and work. The scope of the essays collected here is such that even a novice in More studies may begin to grasp something of his rich, complex personality. $8.50
(Available in May)

The Great Awakening

The Works of Jonathan Edwards, Volume 4

edited by C. C. Goen

Interpreting the Great Awakening of the eighteenth century was in large part the work of Jonathan Edwards. In his writings he sought to locate an authentic core of evangelical experience, to define and defend it against both overheated zealots and rationalistic critics. The tracts presented here appear for the first time in accurate critical texts and document a movement so significant for the American character that it has been called "our national conversion." $18.50

Also in this series

Freedom of the Will Edited by Paul Ramsey $12.50

Religious Affections Edited by John E. Smith $12.50

Original Sin Edited by Clyde A. Holbrook $17.50

Forthcoming Fall 1972

A Religious History of the American People by Sidney E. Ahlstrom

YALE UNIVERSITY PRESS New Haven and London
in Canada: McGill-Queen's University Press

RELIGION AND THE SOLID SOUTH

Samuel S. Hill, Jr. and four co-contributors present an enlightening investigation of religious phenomena and the American South. They examine special traits of southern religious life—the dominance of Evangelical Protestantism and the role of religion as the preserver of white southern culture.

Paper, $2.95

AFRICAN SAGA

Stanlake Samkange. A brief, easy-to-read introduction to African history. Attempts to correct some of the misconceptions held about the continent and her people. An excellent, informative overview of an interesting subject by a distinguished black historian.

Cloth, $5.50; paper, $2.95

THERE WE SAT DOWN: Talmudic Judaism in the Making

Jacob Neusner. This brief account of the foundations of orthodox Judaism as it has been known through the medieval and modern world covers the era from approximately 100 B.C. to A.D. 640. An important book. Appendices. Index.

Paper, $2.95

YEARBOOK OF AMERICAN CHURCHES, 1972

Edited by Constant R. Jacquet, Jr. A one-of-a-kind reference tool for those who are interested in knowing what the church is doing and where it is going. The Yearbook is an established standard work that is carefully researched and updated. Complete, easy-to-read index.

$8.95

REINHOLD NIEBUHR PROPHET TO POLITICIANS

Ronald H. Stone. A perceptive analysis of the writings of Reinhold Niebuhr that centers on his work as a political philosopher and moralist, especially in the field of international politics. Highlights the political side as it examines the sources of his philosophy.

$8

at your local bookstore
abingdon

CHURCH HISTORY INDEX

now available

The American Society of Church History announces the publication of a cumulative Index to volumes 31 through 39 (1962-1970) of Church History. The new Index supplements an earlier one compiled by Mr. Holley M. Shepherd which covered series I and II of the Society's Papers and the first thirty volumes of Church History from 1932 through 1961.

Compiled by Kent Druyvesteyn, former assistant to the editors of Church History, the new publication is a comprehensive guide to three regular features of the journal: articles, book reviews, and dissertation abstracts.

The new Index contains 108 pages and is sized and bound to match the quarterly issues of the journal. It is now available at $2.50 per copy. Orders should be addressed to:

Mr. Guy S. Klett, Treasurer
American Society of Church History
321 Mill Road
Oreland, Pennsylvania 19075

Also still available from Mr. Klett at $2.00 per copy is the earlier Index of the journal for volumes 1-30.