The Review of Black Political Economy

Editor: Dr. Margaret C. Simms, The Urban Institute, Washington, DC

A Publication of the National Economic Association and Clark College, Southern Center for Studies in Public Policy

The Review of Black Political Economy is the basic vehicle for the formulation and analysis of black economic problems. It seeks practical application of policy prescriptions for the solution of these problems. The Review, while emphasizing the American context, has increasingly placed black economic affairs in a larger international framework.
