

THE ART OF AMA ATA AIDOO

POLYLECTICS AND READING AGAINST NEOCOLONIALISM

Vincent O. Odamtten

"The first full-length scholarly study of the total corpus of a major African female writer, at once comprehensive in scope and intensive enough to take us to the complex depths of major critical issues."

—Kofi Anyidoho, University of Ghana, Legon

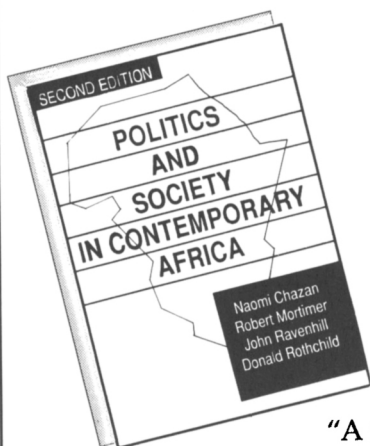

• Odamtten's study reveals how Aidoo's innovative use of structure and themes gleaned from Ghana's oral tradition transforms the Western literary genres in which she appears to be working. His analysis of one of Africa's most versatile authors cuts across the specialized concerns of feminist criticism, African/black literature, and contemporary politics. • 208 pp. 6 X 9. A HISTORY OF ETHIOPIA

HAROLD G. MARCUS

"A very ambitious book. . . . Its readability will insure a wide audience. . . . Specialists will be alternatively outraged, amused, engaged, and challenged."

—James McCann,
Boston University

In this concise history of Ethiopia, Marcus surveys the evolution of the oldest African nation from prehistory to the present. Based on a thorough reading of post-World War II scholarship, Marcus demonstrates that there is more to Ethiopia's existence than colonial logic.

WHEN WE BEGAN THERE WERE WITCHMEN

An Oral History from Mount Kenya

JEFFREY FADIMAN

This is the history of the Meru people of Mount Kenya, based on their own traditions, from the earliest times through the colonial period. Many of these tales have been ritually passed down through no fewer than nineteen generations. Fadiman gathered them in interviews with more than 100 of the Meru's oldest men and women.
