

T'oung Pao

International Journal of Chinese Studies

Edited by P.-E. Will (College de France, Paris, France)
and W.L. Idema (Leiden University, The Netherlands)

T'oung Pao is the foremost journal on Sinology. It aims at furthering our knowledge of traditional Chinese civilization. It covers history, literature, art, history of science, in fact almost anything that concerns China. Having celebrated its hundredth anniversary in 1990, T'oung Pao has established itself as an unrivalled resource for the subject both in the major research libraries of the world and in the private libraries of professors, scholars and students of sinology. T'oung Pao offers you an easy way to stay on top of your discipline.

T'oung Pao contains articles predominantly in English with a few written in French or German. An abundance of figures and tables are included for clarification of details and ease of reading. Each issue of T'oung Pao comprises an extensive Book Review section keeping you up-to-date with all the latest information in the field of sinology.

The Journal of Semitic Studies was established in 1955 and since then has built up a reputation as one of the leading international academic journals in its field. 'Semitic Studies' has always been understood by the editors of the Journal to include the modern as well as the ancient Near (Middle) East, with its special emphasis on research into the languages and literatures of the area. The editors, based in the Department of Middle Eastern Studies at the University of Manchester, continue to maintain the policy of ensuring that each volume contains items of interest to Orientalists and Biblical Scholars. Extensive reviews of selected new books, as well as general review notices, remain a feature of the Journal. Recent and forthcoming articles include:

- Nigel Allan Catalogue of Hebrew Printed Books (1491-1900) in the Wellcome Institute, London
- Solaiman Al-Theeb Two New Dated Nabataean Inscriptions from al-Jawf
- Klaus Beyer Die Aussprache des Christlich-Palästinischen Aramäisch: zur Neuen Grammatik von Christa Müller-Kessler
- S. P. Brock Mingana syr. 628: a Folio from a Revision of the Peshitta Song of Songs
- George J. Brooke 4Q253: A Preliminary Edition
- W. J. Donaldson Units of Counting and Aggregation in Omani Arabic
- Amikam Gai The Category 'Adjective' in Semitic Languages
- Clive Holes The Structure and Function of Parallelism and Repetition in Spoken Arabic: A Sociolinguistic Study
- James E. Montgomery The Deserted Encampment in Ancient Arabic Poetry: A Nexus of Topical Comparisons
- David Thomas The Miracles of Jesus in Early Islamic Polemic

The Journal of Semitic Studies publishes a Supplement Series of hardback books which are available separately from the subscription to the Journal. Recent and forthcoming titles in this series include:

- Sinasi Gündüz The Knowledge of Life: The Origins and Early History of the Mandaeans and Their Relation to the Sabians of the Qur'an and to the Harranians (ISBN: 0 19 922193 6)
- Andrey Korotayev Ancient Yemen: Some General Trends of Evolution of the Sabaic Language and Sabaeen Culture (ISBN: 0 19 922237 1)
- J. C. Greenfield, M. J. Geller, M. P. Weitzman (eds.) Studia Aramaica: New Sources and New Approaches (ISBN: 0 19 922194 4)
