THE KING OF INVENTORS

A Life of Wilkie Collins

Catherine Peters

In this major biography, Catherine Peters explores the complicated life of Wilkie Collins, the greatest of the Victorian "Sensation" novelists. Having discovered a hitherto unknown autobiography by Wilkie Collins's mother, Peters draws on this document and on thousands of Collins's unpublished letters to create a provocative picture of his life and times. This new edition has been supplemented to include an appendix describing Collins's "Tahitian" novel. Written when he was twenty, the manuscript of this work, Ioláni, was thought to have disappeared, but it has recently been rediscovered.

The King of Inventors provides a vivid account of Collins's unusual personal life in the context of his literary and artistic friendships and of newly revealed facts about the two women with whom he shared his "double life."

From reviews of the British edition:

"Catherine Peters's book is crammed with interesting details."

—Peter Quennell, The Evening Standard

"As intelligent and comprehensive account of [Collins's] work as we are ever likely to have."

—Claire Tomalin, Independent on Sunday

THE FLAVORS OF MODERNITY

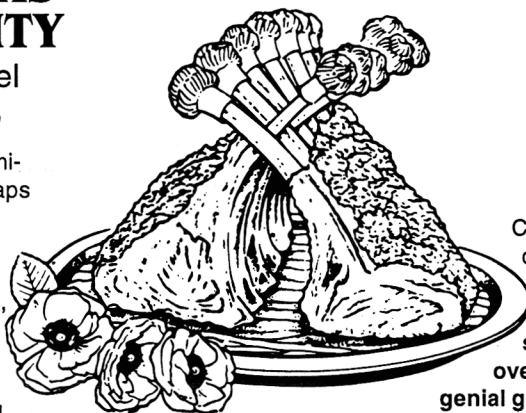

Food and the Novel

Gian-Paolo Biasin

Food has always figured prominently in world literature, but perhaps nowhere has it played such a vital role as in the Italian novel. In a book brimming with descriptions of recipes, ingredients, fragrances, country gardens, kitchens, dinner etiquette, and even hunger, Gian-Paolo Biasin examines food images in the modern Italian novel.

"No one else has possessed the mixture of critical imagination, insight, and tact to produce a study of this sort on this topic. . . . Biasin's work is genuinely ground breaking."—Gregory Lucente, author of Beautiful Fables: Self-Consciousness in Italian Narrative from Manzoni to Calvino

Cloth: $19.95 ISBN 0-691-03275-0

CAPE COD

Henry D. Thoreau

Edited by

Joseph J. Moldenhauer

Thoreau's compelling account of Cape Cod is here presented in the complete and definitive text, excluding only the critical apparatus.

"Cape Cod is Thoreau's sunniest, happiest book. It bubbles over with jokes, puns, tall tales, and genial good humor. . . . Unquestionably the best book that has ever been written about Cape Cod, and it is the model to which all new books about the Cape are still compared."

—Walter Harding, in "The Days of Henry Thoreau"

PMLA (ISSN 0030-8129) is published six times a year, in January, March, May, September, October, and November, by the Modern Language Association of America. Membership in the association is open to persons who are professionally interested in the modern languages and literatures. Annual dues, which include subscription to PMLA, are based on members' incomes and are graduated as follows: student members (four years maximum), $20; new regular members (first year), $35; regular members (income under $15,000), $25; regular members (income $15,000–$20,000), $40; regular members (income $20,000–$30,000), $50; regular members (income $30,000–$40,000), $65; regular members (income $40,000–$50,000), $75; regular members (income $50,000–$60,000), $85; regular members (income $60,000–$70,000), $95; regular members (income $70,000–$80,000), $105; regular members (income over $80,000), $125; foreign members, same as regular members (use the American-dollar equivalent to ascertain the dues category). Membership applications are available on request.

The subscription price of PMLA for libraries and other institutions is $104. A subscription including a bound volume at the end of the year is $239, domestic and foreign. Agents deduct 4% as their fee. Single copies of the January, March, May, and October issues may be obtained for $12 each; the September (Directory) issue for $50; the November (Program) issue for $35. These prices will go into effect for all volumes on 1 January 1994.

Issues for the current year are available from the Member and Customer Services Office of the association (212 614-6377). Claims for undelivered issues will be honored if they are received within one year of the publication date; thereafter the single-issue price will be charged.

For information about the availability of back issues, inquire of Kraus Reprint, Millwood, NY 10546; 914 762-2200. Early and current volumes may be obtained on microfilm from University Microfilms, Ann Arbor, MI 48106. Purchase of current volumes on film is restricted to subscribers of the journal.

The office of publication and editorial offices are located at 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003-6981; 212 475-9500.

All communications including notices of changes of address should be sent to the Member and Customer Services Office of the association. If a change of address also involves a change of institutional affiliation, that office should be informed of this fact at the same time.
