THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW is supplied to all members of the American Society of International Law without extra charge, as the membership fee of five dollars per annum includes the right to all issues of the JOURNAL published during the year for which the dues are paid. (Members residing in foreign countries outside the domestic postal zone pay one dollar extra per annum for foreign postage; Canada fifty cents extra.)

The annual subscription to non-members of the Society is five dollars per annum (plus the above mentioned sums for foreign postage) and should be placed with the American Society of International Law, 2 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C.

Single copies of the JOURNAL will be supplied by the Society at $1.50 per copy.

Applications for membership in the Society, correspondence with reference to the JOURNAL, and books for review should be sent to GEORGE A. FINCH, Recording Secretary and Managing Editor, 2 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The present number completes Volume 23 of the JOURNAL and SUPPLEMENT. Separate title pages, tables of contents, and indexes will be found in the back of each, as the two volumes are separately paged for separate binding.

The Society will bind your copies in full library buckram, handsewed, gold lettering on the back, for $2.00 per volume (the SUPPLEMENT is charged for as a separate volume). Any standard color of binding can be furnished, and the color should be indicated in the order.

Journals should be securely wrapped and mailed prepaid to the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, No. 2 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C. Each package should contain the name and address of the sender, and a check in payment of binding at the above rate should accompany the order. The Society will pay the return postage.
