

People in Political Science

Activities

Gerald Benjamin, SUNY College at New Paltz, was elected to a third term in the Ulster County Legislature. Benjamin received more votes than any other candidate as the Republican Party swept all six seats in his multi-member district.

Donna Lee Bowen, Brigham Young University, is on leave winter semester, 1986, in Morocco.

Jeffrey E. Cohen, associate professor of political science, University of New Orleans, has received a research fellowship from the Earhart Foundation for the summer 1986 term to complete a book-length manuscript on the American Cabinet.

Lee Farnsworth, Brigham Young University, was on leave fall semester 1985 in Japan.

Mary Ellen Fischer, professor of government at Skidmore College, has been appointed an academic associate to the Atlantic Council of the United States.

Martin Hickman, Brigham Young University, is on leave this year in Vienna and London.

Christopher K. Leman, associate of the Center for International Affairs, Harvard University since 1977, is a Resident Fellow at the National Center for Food and Agricultural Policy, located at Resources for the Future in Washington, D.C. In 1986 Leman will join the faculty of the Graduate School of Public Affairs at the University of Washington.

Robert H. Puckett, Indiana State University, has been appointed to the academic advisory committee of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College.

Donna E. Shalala, professor of political science and president of Hunter College, has been selected as a trustee for a four-year term on the TIAA-CREF board.

Jed Snyder of the Hudson Institute's

Washington Office has been named as the first Herman Kahn Fellow in National Security Studies. The fellowship will support completion of his Ph.D. dissertation from the University of Chicago. He is also a MacArthur Foundation Senior Fellow.

Susan Welch of the University of Nebraska delivered an address, "After Ferraro: Women in American Politics," as the fourth Roy Ray Lecture at Centre College, Danville, Kentucky, January 16, 1986.

Administrative Appointments

Marguerite Ross Barnett, City University of New York, has been named chancellor of the University of Missouri's St. Louis campus effective June 1986.

Marguerite Ross Barnett has been named chancellor of the University of Missouri's St. Louis campus.

People in Political Science

Stephen Horn, president of California State University at Long Beach, has assumed the presidency of American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

Joseph J. Karlesky, associate professor of government at Franklin and Marshall College, has been appointed Associate Dean, Faculty Affairs.

New Appointments

David D. Chambers, instructor in government, Franklin and Marshall College, formerly a graduate student at the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana.

Walker Connor, having completed a year as visiting professor of political science at the National University of Singapore, has been appointed the John R. Reitemeyer Professor of Political Science at Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut. Connor completed an extensive lecture tour of Malaysia, Indonesia, Korea, Australia, and New Zealand for the United States Information Agency prior to his return to the United States last summer.

Jorge Heine, formerly director of the Caribbean Institute and Study Center for Latin America (CISCLA) at Inter American University in San German, Puerto Rico, has been appointed associate professor of political science at the University of Puerto Rico, Mayaguez.

Joseph Jucewicz, instructor in government, Franklin and Marshall College; formerly of William and Mary College.

Constance Squires Meaney, instructor in government, Franklin and Marshall College; formerly a graduate student at the University of California, Berkeley.

Bruce Russett, professor, department of political science, has been named Dean Acheson Professor of International Relations and Political Science, Yale University.

H. Bradford Westerfield, professor, department of political science, has been named Damon Wells, Jr., Professor of International Studies and Political Science, Yale University.

Promotions

Ramesh Deosaran, senior lecturer, University of the West Indies, Trinidad, West Indies. The university has published his book, Trial by Jury: Social and Psychological Dynamics.

Visiting and Temporary Appointments

Joseph E. Black, formerly of the Rockefeller Foundation, was a visiting professor fall semester, 1985, Brigham Young University.

Vincent Breglio, President of Decision Making Information, was a visiting professor fall semester, 1985, Brigham Young University.

Sven Groennings, visiting professor of higher education, Institute of Higher Education, University of Georgia, Athens, for the winter and spring quarters 1986.

Stephen Hood, University of California, Santa Barbara, was a visiting instructor fall semester, 1985, Brigham Young University.

Gunn McKay, former member of Congress, visiting professor winter semester, 1986, Brigham Young University.

Chris Mitchell, London City College, will be a visiting professor during the summer term, 1986, Brigham Young University.

Nafez Nazal, The Jerusalem Center for Near Eastern Studies, will be a visiting professor during the summer term, 1986, Brigham Young University.

Noel Reynolds, Brigham Young University, is on leave this year as a visiting scholar at the University of Edinburgh.

Frank L. Wilson, Purdue University, is a visiting scholar winter semester, 1986, Brigham Young University.

Nathan Yanai, University of Haifa, will be a visiting professor during the summer term, 1986, Brigham Young University.

Retirement

Alan P. Grimes is retiring June 1986 from the Political Science Department at Michigan State University where he has taught for 37 years.

Award Recipients

National Science Foundation Awards

Under the Political Science Program, Division of Social and Economic Science, the National Science Foundation has made the following fiscal year 1985 awards.

James Alt, Washington University. Domestic and International Sources of Economic Policy: Party Strategies, World Demand, and Oil Shocks in Industrial Economies. $63,276. 24 months.

Lawrence N. Bailis, Brandeis University. Comparative Analysis of the Delivery of Human Services in the Public and Private Sectors. $54,354. 18 months.

Samuel H. Barnes, University of Michigan-Ann Arbor. Explorations in Partisan Change Across Nations and Time: A Three-Nation Panel Study. $21,404. 12 months.

Larry Bartels, University of Rochester. Collaborative Research on Momentum in Presidential Primaries. $30,469. 18 months.

Henry Brady, Harvard University. Collaborative Research on Momentum in Presidential Primaries. $24,066. 12 months.

Paul Burstein, Vanderbilt University. Consequences of Equal Employment Opportunity Legislation. $27,830. 18 months.

Henry W. Chappell, University of South Carolina. Collaborative Research on Theory and Evidence on Party Differences in Macroeconomic Policies and Outcomes. $20,390. 15 months.

Russell Dalton, Florida State University. Environmental Movements in Western Democracies. $61,997. 12 months.

William Gamson, Boston College. Public Thinking on Political Issues. $11,333. 24 months.

James Gibson, University of Houston. Legal Policy Consequences of Political Intolerance. $5,000. 12 months.

Edward S. Greenberg, University of Colorado-Boulder. Elite Consensus and Dissensus in the Post-War Period: A Preliminary Empirical Test of a Theory of Policy Regimes. $26,052. 12 months.

Bernard Grofman, University of California-Irvine. Collaborative Research on Studies of the Impact of Laws Relating to Elections and Representation. $23,200. 12 months.

Susan Hansen, University of Pittsburgh. Industrial Policy in the American States. $32,419. 12 months.

Ronald Inglehart, University of Michigan. Social and Political Change in Twelve Western Nations. $89,995. 36 months.

Shanto Iyengar, SUNY-Stony Brook. Political Understanding: How People Explain Politics. $106,013. 24 months.

M. Kent Jennings, University of Michigan-Ann Arbor. Political Orientations Over the Long Term: A Two-Generation Three-Wave Study. $99,934. 24 months.

William Keech, University of North Carolina. Collaborative Research on Theory and Evidence of Party Differences in Macroeconomic Policies and Outcomes. $15,231. 15 months.

Donald Kinder, University of Michigan. Context and Choice in the 1984 American Presidential Election. $52,742. 24 months.

Patrick D. Larkey and Richard A. Smith, Carnegie-Mellon University. Misrepresentation and Justification in State and Local Budgetary Processes. $74,991. 12 months.

Richard R. Lau and Richard A. Smith, Carnegie-Mellon University. $59,993. 18 months.

Russell J. Leng, Middlebury College. Behavioral Correlates of War Data. $32,623. 6 months.