One of the leading organs for philosophical discussion on the international scene. providing a medium for study of the philosophy of art and the principles of aesthetic appreciation and judgement. Experience of both fine and applied art is examined from the point of view of the psychologist, the sociologist, the historian, the teacher and the general critic. By bringing together discussions of general philosophical aesthetics and articles on the principles of appraisal which apply in the various arts severally, the journal works towards a better understanding of the analogies and differences between them. Established 1960.

LOGICAL SELF-DEFENSE, second edition

Ralph H. Johnson and J. Anthony Blair, both at the University of Windsor

The book which introduced the fallacies approach in teaching argument criticism. Written at the same level and scope as the successful first edition, this second edition is completely updated incorporating new examples, many new exercises and for the first time, answers to selected exercises. Major changes occur and the authors have concentrated greatly on developing the tools of argument analysis. Chapters 1 and 2 have been rewritten and expanded, to deal in greater detail with the problems of identifying and extracting arguments from discourse and distinguishing between argumentation and expression of opinion. Chapter 8, Extended Arguments, has been extensively revised with more emphasis given to argument strategy, and a distinction between the "macro" structure and the "micro" structure of extended arguments. New chapter, Developing an Argument discusses the guidelines for constructing arguments, developed around a complete picture of how arguments work. April 1983, (07548588-5), 272 pages (tent.), $13.95 (tent.)

CONTEMPORARY MORAL ISSUES

Wesley Cragg, Laurentian University

Much more than a collection of over 50 readings, this book provides balanced coverage of the diverse viewpoints on such issues as abortion, euthanasia, capital punishment, native studies, and more. It contains many selections by writers, other than philosophers and judicial opinions are included throughout. Chapter introductions discuss the ethical issues to be covered, questions and suggested additional readings follow each chapter, April 1983, (07548582-6), 415 pages (tent.), $18.50 (tent.)

KANT

Edited with Introduction by
MOLTKE S. GRAM

In this volume, eight internationally known philosophers examine the problems surrounding some of the most disputed and controversial terms in Kant's philosophical semantics.

This first unified effort to apply the tools of philology to illuminate the structure of arguments central to Kant's philosophical claims is "one of the very few books that deals seriously with the problem of philosophical translation."—R. M. Martin, Department of Philosophy, Northwestern University

NOÛS

Hector-Neri Castañeda, editor

Earl Conee, associate editor

The primary purpose of Noûs is to publish outstanding essays that extend the frontiers of philosophical research. Noûs emphasizes positive theoretical work that takes full account of current developments in philosophy. There are no editorial restrictions on either the area of philosophy that is discussed or the philosophical orientation of the discussion. Noûs offers several distinctive services to its readers:

CRITICAL REVIEWS: Each issue contains detailed evaluations of a few important recent philosophical books.

WESTERN DIVISION SYMPOSIA PAPERS: The March issue of each volume is devoted to the invited addresses for the year's American Philosophical Association Western Division meetings.

SPECIAL TOPIC ISSUES: Frequently an issue will contain a collection of major papers on a single central philosophical topic, often guest-edited by a leading authority on the topic.

Subscription Rates for Volume XVII (1983) only: Individuals: 1 year $16.00, 2 years $31.00, 3 years $46.00. Institutions: 1 year $32.00, 2 years $64.00, 3 years $96.00. Please add $3.00 postage per year for all foreign subscriptions.

INQUIRIES SHOULD BE SENT TO: Noûs, Department of Philosophy, Indiana University Sycamore 126, Bloomington, Indiana 47405 USA.

A bi-lingual journal for publications in academic philosophy and for theoretical work in other fields of interest to philosophers.

Academics in the humanities and social sciences routinely complain that there is no rapid dissemination of informed and informative opinion concerning publications in their fields. This is doubly unfortunate when more books than ever before are being published. Philosophers in particular need to be informed not only of work that is strictly philosophical but also of work which is primarily theoretical in nature in such areas as law, psychology, sociology, literary criticism, physics, medicine, linguistics and classical studies. C.P.R./R.C.C.P. is the first journal based in North America to aim systematically to meet that need.
