The common law defence of automatism: a quagmire for the psychiatrist – CORRIGENDUM

Keith J. B. Rix

doi: 10.1192/apt.bp.113.012146, Published by Royal College of Psychiatrists, July 2015.

In the article by Rix (2015) there was an error in table 1. Hypoglycaemia should have appeared in the table as a cause of non-insane (sane) automatism.
