CONGRESS ON RESEARCH IN DANCE
Annual Conference

CALL FOR PAPERS:

Dance, Culture and Art-Making Behavior

31 October-2 November 1997
University of Arizona, Tucson

The theme of this conference calls for cross-disciplinary research and dialogue. It invites new thinking and synthesis of ideas from a wide range of disciplines. Among those topics that may be addressed in sessions are:

Art-making as fundamental education

Is there an "art-making" intelligence?

Observing dance behavior in early childhood

Street dancing as human behavior

Dance as art versus dance as behavior

The psychology of art-making behavior

How does dance represent culture?

The behavioral relationship of dance to other art forms

Dance education and the nurturing of art-making behavior

Submissions of proposals on research areas outside the conference theme are welcome.

Graduate students at any stage in their careers who are prepared to present original research are invited to submit full papers for the Graduate Research Award Panel at the conference.

Submit proposals (four copies of each, prepared for blind review) for formal papers, lecture-demonstrations, workshops, panels, round-table discussions, or other sessions to:

John M. Wilson, CORD Conference Chair
Dance Division
School of Music and Dance
College of Fine Arts

Dance Research Journal 28/2 (Fall 1996) 129

The Congress on Research in Dance (CORD) is an interdisciplinary organization with an open, international membership. Its purposes are 1) to encourage research in all aspects of dance, including its related fields; 2) to foster the exchange of ideas, resources, and methodology through publications, international and regional conferences, and workshops; 3) to promote the accessibility of research materials.

CORD is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization. Copies of the CORD financial and operating report, filed with the State of New York, are available upon written request from the New York State Board of Social Welfare, Charities Registration Section, Office Tower, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12242 U.S.A.

Members of CORD have voting privileges, reduced rates at conferences, special discounts on publications, and receive two journals, and two newsletters each membership year, which extends from January 1 to December 31. Members whose dues are received in the CORD Office after March 15 will receive current publications unless no stock remains, in which case they will receive another recent issue. (Publication print-runs are based on current membership figures and include a limited number of over-runs projected to accommodate members who join after March 15.) To ensure receipt of publications, members are responsible for notifying the CORD Office of address changes in a timely manner.

Membership Fees are given below in U.S. dollars, and must be paid in U.S. funds in the form of a check drawn on a U.S. bank, international money order, or international postal money order:
