The Macpherson Prize

The Macpherson Prize, established in honour of Crawford Brough Macpherson (1911-1987), internationally renowned political theorist, will be awarded in 1996. The prize, to which is attached a monetary award in the amount of $750, is awarded biennially to the author of the best book published in English or French in political theory in the preceding two-year period. The award-winning book must be single-authored and will be selected by the Board of Directors of the Canadian Political Science Association, upon the recommendation of the Prize Jury. No edited texts, textbooks or collections of essays will be considered. The author must be either a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident (landed immigrant) who resides in Canada. The Macpherson Prize is sponsored by the University of Toronto Press Inc. Individuals who have published a book in 1994 or 1995 which is eligible for the prize should ensure that their publishers forward one copy of the book by December 10, 1995, to each of: (1) Macpherson Prize Jury, The Canadian Political Science Association, Suite 205, 1 Stewart Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1N 6H7; (2) Macpherson Prize Jury, Professor Ronald Beiner, Department of Political Science, University of Toronto, 100 St. George Street, Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A1; (3) Macpherson Prize Jury, Professeur André-J.
