BRUCE CUMINGS

THE ORIGINS
OF THE
KOREAN WAR
VOLUME II

The Roaring of the Cataract
1947-1950

The Origins of the Korean War

Volume II: The Roaring of the
Cataract, 1947-1950
Bruce Cumings

In the long-awaited second volume of his exhaustive study of the roots of the Korean war, Bruce Cumings examines the internal political-economic development of the two Korean states and the consequences, for Korea, of Cold War rivalry between the United States and the Soviet Union.

"This is a tremendously important book on a remarkably complex and engaging subject. As in the first volume, Cumings brings to the project passion and intellect, prodigious research, and personal involvement. Determined to go beneath the surface appearances, [Cumings] vividly portrays the ways in which the North and South Korean regimes established and wielded power from 1947-1950. His investigation shatters numerous myths about the 'democratic South' and the 'Sovietized' North."

Policy Making in China

Leaders, Structures, and Processes

Kenneth Lieberthal and Michel Oksenberg

"Show[s] the system to be made up of real human beings engaged in high-stakes political activity, impossible to capture on an organization chart. . . . A major work that no serious student of politics should miss."

—Michael Gasster, Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science

"The best book yet in the 'doing business in China' category."

—Nancy Langston, Far Eastern Economic Review

EDITORIAL AND SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Journal of Asian Studies (ISSN 0021-9118), founded in 1941 and known until September 1956 as the Far Eastern Quarterly, is published by the Association for Asian Studies (formerly The Far Eastern Association) in February, May, August, and November. The annual institutional subscription rate for the Journal (including the Bibliography of Asian Studies and the Doctoral Dissertations on Asia) is $80, postage included. Regular members of the Association for Asian Studies receive the Journal as part of their annual membership. Single issues of the Journal and Bibliography published after February 1974 are available through the Secretariat of the Association. Issues published prior to 1958 may be purchased from A.M.S. Reprints, 56 East 13th Street, New York, NY 10003.

The editor welcomes preliminary inquiries about manuscripts for possible publication in The Journal of Asian Studies. Completed manuscripts should be sent to the editor, David D. Buck, JAS, Department of History, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Milwaukee, WI 53201. Please submit four copies. All submitted work should be double-spaced, including extracts, notes, and references. Because manuscripts cannot be returned, please do not send the original. Consult recent issues of the Journal as a guide to the format for source citations, notes, and references. Footnotes should be as few as possible and typed double-spaced at the end of the text. Documentation should follow the style recommended in sections 15.4 through 15.35 of The Chicago Manual of Style, 13th ed. (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1982), pp. 400–408. All manuscripts submitted to the JAS are expected not to have been published elsewhere and not to be under review for possible publication elsewhere. Manuscripts, including notes, should not be more than 40 pages in length.

Authors are encouraged to submit tables, figures, and black-and-white photographs, and other illustrations along with their manuscripts. Photocopies or photos of record are acceptable for first review and should accompany the manuscript at original submission. Authors who wish to illustrate their articles with photographs must provide black-and-white glossy prints of good quality at the time of final delivery of their copyedited manuscript. Please provide a separate, typewritten, double-spaced list of captions and legends for all illustrations, keyed by number to each figure or photograph, including all necessary credit or permission lines. Authors are responsible for securing and paying for permission to use illustrative material. Do not write on the back of photographs or paste photographs to sheets of paper. Identify each photo by typing the first words of its caption on a stick-on label, then affix the label to the back of the photo. Photographs will be returned after publication.

Books for review and correspondence concerning reviews should be sent to the appropriate editor.
