BLOOMSBURY ENCYCLOPEDIA OF PHILOSOPHERS

Launching December 2017

Over 7,000 in-depth articles on the prominent intellectuals and the lesser-known figures responsible for shaping the history of philosophy.

Featuring thinkers not only from dominant Anglo-American traditions, but also from neglected traditions usually absent from historical surveys of philosophy. Entries define "philosophers" in the widest sense including political scientists, literary critics, jurists, economists, and religious writers.

Traditional scholarly journals tend conservatively to deal primarily with “establishment” topics, while those which are not yet admitted to the canon receive inadequate critical scrutiny or are treated in predictably aloof fashion. Because academic publishing may be a high-risk endeavor, subjects not in the mainstream may be shunted aside. While not all of equal significance, many such subjects are worthy of more serious consideration than they have received heretofore, and have much to offer investigators of contemporary myths and culture in regard to the mentality of the age, societal values, and the process of sociocultural change. Even texts of marginal or transitory literary significance can yield valuable historical and sociological insights.

Of primary consideration in the genesis of the MONOGRAPHIC REVIEW/REVISTA MONOGRÁFICA has been the remedying of specific areas of critical neglect. The monographic format was selected because of its combination of the convenience and greater comprehensiveness of book form with the versatility of the periodical. Each number is monographic in its treatment of a single topic while offering a variety of critical viewpoints and methodologies.

MONOGRAPHIC REVIEW/REVISTA MONOGRÁFICA, comprising a series of annual monographic volumes (one per year) is sold by individual numbers, purchase of which does not constitute a subscription to future numbers, although annual notices of pending new volumes are sent to prior purchasers. Please return your purchase order for Volume(s) _____ (below) with your check.

Daniel R. Schwarz

WILEY Blackwell

ISBN: 978-1-118-97485-8
Paperback | 208 pages | $19.95

Features a wealth of advice for getting the most from an undergraduate education, especially in the areas of arts and humanities, written by an award-winning educator and mentor with almost 50 years of experience in the classroom.

Packed with information as helpful to prospective and current students as it is to their parents, teachers, and advisors.

How to Succeed in College and Beyond

The Art of Learning

By Daniel R. Schwarz, Cornell University, USA

"This should become required reading for current and prospective college students (and their parents). It offers practical, step-by-step advice on issues from finding a mentor to student debt and rising tuition costs. Schwarz bolsters his wise commentary with testimonials from current and former students as well as other professors and administrators." Daniel Morris, Purdue University

"A feast of common sense at a time when common sense is not so common. The friendly conversational style of Schwarz's book will make it a valued companion as students and their parents navigate what looks from the outside like a mysterious terrain. He brings it down to earth."

Stanley Fish, Florida International University

Takes the reader through the critical stages of the student journey, including:

- high school preparation, applications, and financial aid
- advice for making the most of each undergraduate year from freshman to senior, and beyond
- Planning for the future and career preparation

Covers foundational, high impact skills and decisions, including:

- course selection
- extra-curricular activities
- independent study
- junior year abroad
- honors essays
- graduate school choices
- dissertations
- career searches, and more

The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing

Theodore L. Blumberg

A most cogent guide to good legal writing. Blumberg emphasizes the importance of cultivating a clear and engaging prose style. He not only provides a typology of the profession's most common literary sins; he explores the motivations behind them. At once witty and exhilarating, The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing will change the way lawyers and scholars do business.

Under pressure of disbarment this book should be read and understood by every lawyer, most of whom forget they, and the judges who read their miserable briefs, are human beings.

— Gerry Spence

A remarkable and concise roadmap to more effective, intelligible and persuasive legal writing. An invaluable desktop resource.

— Theodore B. Olson

Theodore L. Blumberg practices corporate and entertainment law in Manhattan. A graduate of Temple University School of Law, he is a frequent contributor to The New York Law Journal and a lecturer in the Fahringer seminars in legal writing.

THE SCHOOL OF CRITICISM & THEORY at Cornell University

An international program of study with leading figures in critical theory

invites you to apply for its 2018 Summer Session,
June 17 - July 26

IN NEW YORK STATE'S FINGER LAKES REGION

Hent de Vries, Director

*Paulette Goddard Professor of the Humanities;
Professor of Religion, German, and Comparative Literature, New York University*

The Program

In an intensive six-week course of study, participants from around the world, across disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, explore recent developments in critical theory.

Tuition

The fee for the session is $3000. Applicants are eligible to compete for partial tuition scholarships and are urged to seek funding from their home institutions.

Admission

We welcome applications from faculty members and advanced graduate students at universities worldwide. Applications must be submitted online by February 1, and admissions decisions are announced in March.

For online application and program information:

CORNELL UNIVERSITY PRESS

*Announcing a new series
from Cornell University Press*

---

CORPUS JURIS

The Humanities in Politics and Law

Legal theory, in many ways, represents one of the original sites of interdisciplinary inquiry. Corpus Juris seeks to extend that long tradition by focusing on the many contributions made to the study of law and politics by the humanities—including history, literary criticism, anthropology, philosophy, religious studies, and political theory. We seek cutting-edge scholarship that not only tackles new or under-analyzed issues in politics and law but also develops innovative methods to explore those questions.

Performing Celebrity, a new book series from the University of Delaware Press, publishes single-authored monographs and essay collections that explore the dynamics of fame, infamy, and technologies of image making from the early modern period to the present day. This series of books seeks to add to exciting recent developments in the emerging field of celebrity studies by publishing outstanding works that explore mechanisms of self-fashioning, stardom, and notoriety operating across genres and media in a broad range of historical and national contexts. It focuses on interdisciplinary projects that employ current research and a wide variety of theoretical approaches to performance and celebrity in relation to literature, history, art history, media, fashion, theater, gender(s), sexuality, race, ethnicity, disability, material culture, etc.

WHY WRITE?

COLLECTED NONFICTION 1960-2013

"Our hero continues his great and devouring argument with life. At a time when we seem to be questioning every verity, Why Write? is required reading."

Jonathan Lethem

SUSAN SONTAG

Essays of the 1960s & 70s

Later Essays

"A sparkle-house of brainy verve, riddled with insight and style to slaver over."

The Chicago Tribune

URSULA K. LE GUIN

The Hainish Novels & Stories

[2 vol. boxed set]

"Genre cannot contain Le Guin: she is a genre in herself."

Zadie Smith

“This new edition of Introduction to Documentary is incisive and magisterial, a brilliantly organized and ambitious analysis of that enigmatic, open-ended, and vital area of cinema in which reality is not so much documented as transformed.”

—Joshua Oppenheimer,
Director, Producer, Filmmaker

This is the inspiring story of The Flaherty, one of the oldest continuously running nonprofit media arts institutions in the world. Combining the words of legendary independent filmmakers with a detailed history of The Flaherty, Patricia R. Zimmermann and Scott MacDonald showcase its history and legacy.

VENGEANCE IN REVERSE THE TANGLED LOOPS OF VIOLENCE, MYTH, AND MADNESS

MARK R. ANSPACH

Drawing on ethnography, literature, psychotherapy, and the theory of René Girard, Mark R. Anspach explores some of the fundamental mechanisms of human interaction in this fresh look at vengeance, gift exchange, and the emergence of transcendence. From the peacemaking rituals of prestate societies to the paradoxical structure of consciousness, Anspach takes the reader on an intellectual journey that begins with the problem of how to deceive violence and ends with the riddle of how one can deceive oneself.

“Original and brilliant.”

—Ivan Strenski, author of Thinking About Religion

978-1-61186-238-6 • $24.95 • paper • 136 pgs.

VIOLENCE IN THE FILMS OF ALFRED HITCHCOCK

A STUDY IN MIMESIS

DAVID HUMBERT

Parting ways with the Freudian and Lacanian readings that have dominated scholarly understanding of Hitchcock, David Humbert examines the roots of violence in the director's narratives and finds them not in human sexuality but in mimetic desire. This readable study will appeal to Hitchcock fans, film scholars, and students.

“An excellent introduction both to Girard's thought and to Hitchcock, as well as a welcome addition to film studies. . . . Highly recommended.”

—Stephen Gardner, Associate Professor of Philosophy, University of Tulsa

Language and Literature Journals from UW Press

Contemporary Literature publishes scholarly essays on contemporary writing in English, interviews with established and emerging authors, and reviews of recent critical books in the field. The journal welcomes articles on multiple genres, including poetry, the novel, drama, creative non-fiction, new media and digital literature, and graphic narrative. As a forum for discussing issues animating the range of contemporary literary studies, CL features the full diversity of critical practices. Published quarterly. ISSN: 0010-7484, E-ISSN: 1548-9949.

Luso-Brazilian Review publishes interdisciplinary scholarship on Portuguese, Brazilian, and Lusophone African cultures, with special emphasis on scholarly works in literature, history, and the social sciences. Each issue includes articles and book reviews, which may be written in either English or Portuguese. Occasional issues are devoted to a special topic. Published bi-annually. ISSN: 0024-7413, E-ISSN: 1548-9957.

Founded in 1899, Monatshefte has been published continuously since 1899 at the University of Wisconsin–Madison. A quarterly journal devoted to German literature and culture, Monatshefte has retained its place at the forefront of American Germanistik. In addition to the articles on topics from all periods of German literature and book reviews of current scholarship in German Studies, the Winter issue (#4) contains our annual Personalia listing, an indispensable listing of new hires, retirements, promotions and visiting professors, with a list of all Ph.D. theses that have been defended in the preceding year. Published quarterly. ISSN: 0026-9271, E-ISSN: 1934-2810.

Substance has a long-standing reputation for publishing innovative work on literature and culture. While its main focus has been on French literature and continental theory, the journal is known for its openness to original thinking in all the discourses that interact with literature, including philosophy, natural and social sciences, and the arts. Published tri-annually. ISSN: 0049-2426, E-ISSN: 1527-2095.

HOW TO PLAY A POEM

DON BIALOSTOSKY

Paper • $26.95 • 256 pp. • 978-0-8229-6437-7

"Bialostosky addresses the classroom art of animating a poem: how to equip readers to enter the poetic utterance, participate in performing it, and co-create its wisdoms and pleasures. A smart, effective, infectious book."

—CARYL EMERSON, Princeton University

ANTI-LITERATURE

The Politics and Limits of Representation in Modern Brazil and Argentina

ADAM JOSEPH SHELLHORSE

Paper • $29.95 • 272 pp. • 978-0-8229-6447-6

"Shellhorse proposes a new reading method that attends to the marginal, subaltern qualities of the literary text, and places it in urgent conversation with the most cutting-edge concepts coming out of critical theory and philosophy today. Surely among the most original, theoretically sophisticated, yet accessible books published in a very long time."

NEW in the Cambria Latin American Literatures & Cultures Series

General Editor | ROMÁN DE LA CAMPA (University of Pennsylvania)

A new reading on monstrosity as manifested in the arts, literature, popular culture, philosophy, and political thought

European monster tradition intersects with American mass-media production and new philosophical approaches to topics of community, political power, alternative representations of race and gender, identity, hybridity, political agency, and collective subjectivity in The Monster as War Machine. In this book, cultural theory, close readings of literary texts, and interpretations of visual materials come together, covering a wide and diversified cultural territory.

Some of the authors included in this study are Agamben, Badiou, Baudrillard, Deleuze, Esposito, Foucault, Freud, Haraway, Hardt, Kristeva, Marx, Negri, and Žižek, whose works illuminate the disruptive and at times emancipatory role of monstrosity as a representation of excess, instinct, evil, truth, and rebelliousness. This book is an important resource for those studying film, contemporary literature, and popular culture.

The Monster as War Machine · 978-1-60497-986-2 · 2018 · 586pp.

MABEL MORAÑA is the William H. Gass Professor in Arts and Sciences at Washington University in St. Louis.
