To be published in 1960

MAJOR GOVERNMENTS OF MODERN EUROPE

Herman Finer, University of Chicago. Replaces Professor Finer's Governments of Greater European Powers. Virtually completely rewritten with the addition of a brilliant introduction on the crucial problems of government in the Twentieth Century. 780 pp. est.

AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY IN THE NUCLEAR AGE

Cecil V. Crabb, Jr., Vassar College. A new treatment of United States foreign policy with the emphasis on analysis. Major problems and world politics are presented in a way that reveals motivations and goals, thus providing the student with bases to guide his own evaluation of foreign policy in the future. 544 pp. est.

HANDBOOK OF PRACTICAL POLITICS (Second Edition)

Paul P. Van Riper, Cornell University. The second edition of a book that shows the individual how to influence voters and win elections. Extensive use of materials from the two political parties, independent civic organizations, and pressure groups. 352 pp. est.

HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE

Paul P. Van Riper, Cornell University. "Replete with facts, illustrations, and quotations, it is well organized and smoothly if not excitingly written. The tremendous amount of research and reading, apparently carried on over much of the past two decades, is clearly reflected not only in the text but also in the helpful bibliographical notes appended to most of the chapters and in the abundance of supporting footnotes. It will be a useful addition to the growing armory of teachers, scholars, and students concerned with the development of public personnel administration or the history of public administration generally."—Frederick C. Mosher, University of California (Berkeley), American Political Science Review, March, 1959. xvi + 588 pp. $7.50

LEADERSHIP IN ADMINISTRATION: A Sociological Interpretation

Philip Selznick, University of California, Berkeley. "...happily devoid of a single word of jargon and deals in stimulating fashion with a subject that has been neglected in the current literature of organizational theory... the Selznick volume deserves special recognition for its readability and for its suggestive, stimulating ideas."—Marver Bernstein, Princeton University, American Political Science Review, March, 1959. xii + 162 pp. $4.00

ROLES OF THE CITIZEN: Principles and Practices

William S. Vincent, Columbia University. "Vincent's Roles of the Citizen... contains a lot of very useful information for the teacher and student of civics and political parties."—Lloyd M. Short, University of Minnesota. viii + 452 pp. $5.25
