Urban Apartheid in Morocco

Jewish Self-Government in Medieval Egypt

The Origins of the Office of Head of the Jews, ca. 1065-1126

MARK R. COHEN

Winner of the Gerrard and Ella Berman Award awarded by the Jewish Book Council

Under three successive Islamic dynasties—the Fatimids, the Ayyubids, and the Mamluks—the Egyptian Office of the Head of the Jews (also known as the Nagid) became the most powerful representative of medieval Jewish autonomy in the Islamic world. To determine the origins of this institution, Mark Cohen concentrates on the complex web of internal and external circumstances during the latter part of the 11th century. $27.50

The Early Islamic

Conquests

FRED MCGRAW DONNER

In an original contribution to the cloudy debate on the nature and causes of the Islamic conquests in Syria and Iraq during the sixth and seventh centuries, Fred Donner argues for a necessary distinction between the causes of the conquests, the causes of their success, and the causes of subsequent Arab migrations to the Fertile Crescent. Princeton Studies on the Near East. $35.00
