

'A learned publication of quality'
MAGAZINES FOR LIBRARIES

THE HISTORICAL JOURNAL

The Historical Journal is published quarterly by Cambridge University Press in association with the Cambridge Historical Society. It publishes papers on all aspects of British, European and world history since the fifteenth century. The range of contributors is truly international in scope. Each issue contains eight to twelve full length articles, several communications, review articles giving detailed consideration to a recent book or group of books, plus reviews of recent publications.

Recent Articles

Whig history and present-centred history A. Wilson & T. G. Ashplant, Arthur Henderson and the British political crisis of 1931 A. Thorpe, Politics and government in Tudor England G. W. Bernard, The pictorial media N. Hiley.

Subscriptions

Volume 33 (1990) £67 in the UK, £71 elsewhere; £29 members of the Cambridge Historical Society; single parts £19; airmail £17 per year extra.

Asceticism and Society in Crisis

John of Ephesus and The Lives of the Eastern Saints

Susan Ashbrook Harvey

John of Ephesus, the sixth-century Byzantine monk, missionary, writer and church leader used the literary conventions of hagiography in a strikingly personal way in his major work, The Lives of the Eastern Saints. Taking this work of John of Ephesus as her guide, Harvey explores the relationship between asceticism and society in the sixth-century Byzantine East. $35.00 The Transformation of the Classical Heritage

Radicalism and Reverence

The Political Thought of Gerrard Winstanley

George M. Shulman

One of the most undeservedly neglected political theorists of the 17th century, Gerrard Winstanley is a fascinating figure who wrote broadly and creatively on issues that appear surprisingly modern to his present-day readers. Shulman examines the life and work of this important thinker as he seeks to illuminate what was at stake at that time and relate it to contemporary debates about the self, politics, and language. $35.00
