Landmark Cases in Public International Law Eirik Bjorge and Cameron Miles

This book examines decisions that have contributed to the development of international law into an integrated whole, whilst also creating specialised sub-systems that stand alone as units of analysis. The significance of these decisions is not taken for granted, with contributors critically interrogating the cases to determine if their reputation as 'landmarks' is deserved.

Eirik Bjorge is Senior Lecturer in Public International Law in the University of Bristol Law School.

Cameron Miles is a barrister of Gray's Inn, practising from 3 Verulam Buildings in London.

The Rule of Law, Freedom of Expression and Islamic Law Hossein Esmaeili, Irmgard Marboe and Javaid Rehman

One important aspect of the rule of law is freedom of expression. Given the sensitivity of Muslim societies in relation to their sacred beliefs, freedom of expression, as an international human rights issue, has raised some controversial cases. This book, drawing on both International and Islamic Law, explores the rule of law, and freedom of expression and its practical application in the Muslim world.

Hossein Esmaeili is Associate Professor of Law at Flinders University. Irmgard Marboe is Associate Professor of International Law at the University of Vienna. Javaid Rehman is Professor of Islamic Law at Brunel University.

Rewriting Children's Rights Judgments From Academic Vision to New Practice Edited by Helen Stalford, Kathryn Hollingsworth and Stephen Gilmore

This important edited collection is the culmination of research undertaken by the Children's Rights Judgments Project. This initiative involved academic experts revisiting existing case law, drawn from a range of legal sub-disciplines and jurisdictions, and redrafting the judgment from a children's rights perspective. The rewritten judgments shed light on the conceptual and practical challenges of securing children's rights within judicial decision-making.

Helen Stalford is Professor of Law at the University of Liverpool. Kathryn Hollingsworth is Professor of Law at Newcastle Law School. Stephen Gilmore is Professor of Family Law at King's College London.

Unity in Adversity EU Citizenship, Social Justice and the Cautionary Tale of the UK Charlotte O'Brien

This book draws upon the ground-breaking EU Rights Project, working first hand with EU nationals in the UK, providing advice and advocacy, and giving ethnographic insight into the process of navigating EU and UK welfare law. Its study of EU law in action is a radical new approach, and the case studies illustrate the political, legal and administrative obstacles to justice faced by EU nationals.

Charlotte O'Brien is a Senior Lecturer at York Law School, University of York.
