The Wiley-Blackwell Management and Organization Review
Young Scholar Award

MOR gives this award every two years, at the biennial conference of the International Association for Chinese Management Research, to recognize a young scholar's contributions to the fields of managerial and organizational research. The award goes to a young author who is the sole or first author of his/her article in Management and Organization Review. Eligible authors must have received their degrees no more than five years prior to their article's publication or was a Ph.D. student at the time of publication. The winner receives a 12 month complimentary membership to the IACMR, including a subscription to Management and Organizational Review (print and online); USD $2000.00; a plaque; and public recognition at the Conference.

2010 Young Scholar Award Winner

Robert E. White, Arizona State University (with co-authors
Robert E. Hoskisson, Daphne W. Yiu, and Garry D. Bruton)

'Employment and Market Innovation in Chinese Business
Group Affiliated Firms: The Role of Group Control Systems,'
MOR 4:2 225–256.

2008 Young Scholar Award Winner

Wenhong Chen, Duke University

'Does the Colour of the Cat Matter?: The Red Hat Strategy in China's Private Enterprises,' MOR 3:1 55–80.

Management and Organization Review Best Reviewer Award

Every two years, MOR recognizes the reviewers who have performed the most number of reviews on a timely basis in the previous two-year period, with the highest quality and strong developmental comments. The recent winners are listed below. The winner receives a certificate of recognition, a MOR gift, and public recognition at the MOR Board meeting.
