

LINKING THE PULPIT AND POLITICS

“The sermon is America’s characteristic form of speech, and this book is a brilliant exposition of that form.... We speak and hear of our destiny as a nation in the voice of the sermon.”

—Peter Gomes, author of The Good Book

This narrative history follows America from colonization to the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001; revealing how the sermon has shaped America’s self-understanding. It is a uniquely compelling vehicle to tell the national story.

Africa & the Christian East

LIGHT FROM THE CHRISTIAN EAST
An Introduction to the Orthodox Tradition
James R. Payton Jr.

“James Payton has . . . produced a book that is inviting, accessible and more content-rich than an introductory work is expected to be. Light from the Christian East is an excellent book.” —Frederica Mathewes-Green, author of The Illumined Heart: The Ancient Christian Path of Transformation

THE BLESSING OF AFRICA
The Bible and African Christianity
Keith Augustus Burton

“This is indeed a landmark publication as it is an invaluable contribution on the specificity of African Christian theology that has blossomed in the last thirty-five years.”
—Ukachukwu Chris Manus, author of Christ the African King and Intercultural Hermeneutics of the Bible in Africa

“This translation, along with the helpful introductions and commentary by Paul L. Maier, makes early history come alive.”

—Mark A. Noll,
Francis A. McAnaney Professor of History,
University of Notre Dame

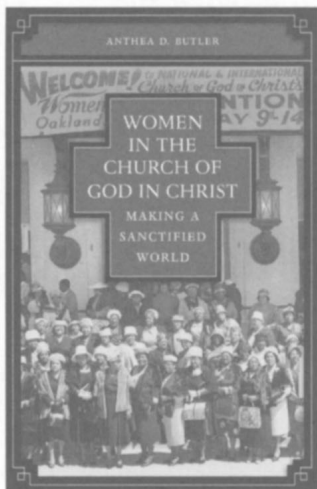

This new paperback edition includes Paul L. Maier's clear and precise translation (1999); historical commentary on each book in The Church History; helpful indexes; the Loeb numbering system; and countless maps, illustrations, and photographs. It's an ideal textbook, translated and edited with the modern student in mind.

WOMEN IN THE CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST

Making a Sanctified World

Anthea D. Butler

“Rich stories . . . [bring] the characters to life in clear and lively prose. . . . Reshape[s] important arenas of investigation in American women’s religious history.”—R. Marie Griffith, author of Born Again Bodies

“A major contribution to our understanding of the history of Pentecostalism and to the religious history of African American women. . . . A pathbreaking work.”—Albert Raboteau, author of Slave Religion
224 pp. $55.00 cloth / $18.95 paper

DIVINE HIERARCHIES

Class in American Religion and Religious Studies

Sean McCloud

“An engaging, provocative book. Crossing scholarly domains in helpful ways, it will earn the serious attention of American religious historians and broader theoreticians of religion. Yet McCloud combines approaches from across subfields and disciplines in an unpretentious manner that should prove inviting to undergraduates as well.”

—Leigh Eric Schmidt, Princeton University
Approx. 272 pp. $65.00 cloth / $22.50 paper

GOVERNING SPIRITS

Religion, Miracles, and Spectacles in Cuba and Puerto Rico, 1898–1956

Reinaldo L. Román

Freedom of religion did not come easily to Cuba or Puerto Rico. After the arrival of American troops during the Spanish-American War, non-Catholics were permitted to practice their religions openly and to proselytize. But as new laws went into effect, critics voiced their dismay at the rise of popular religions. Reinaldo L. Román explores the changing relationship between regulators and practitioners.

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, Yale University Divinity School, 409 Prospect St., Box 473, New Haven, CT 06511.
