

The Aims and Methods of Scholarship
in Modern Languages and Literatures

Edited by James Thorpe

FOUR IMPORTANT ESSAYS BY

William G. Moulton	Linguistics
Fredson Bowers	Textual Criticism
Robert E. Spiller	Literary History
Northrop Frye	Literary Criticism

Every graduate student should read these essays. They are informative and written by eminent scholars in their fields. They introduce and define the subjects.

Copies may be obtained from the Treasurer, Modern Language Association, 4 Washington Place, New York, N.Y. 10003.

Price: $1.00 each. 20% discount to dealers; the same discount to others on orders of 25 or more copies.