

Chicano Drama

Performance, Society and Myth

Jorge Huerta

In this book Huerta explores the energy of Chicano theatre. He takes as his starting point 1979, and through informative biographies of each playwright and analyses of their plays, offers an accessible introduction to this important aspect of American theatre and culture.

£40.00 HB 0 521 771196 224pp

£14.95 PB 0 521 778174

Women in British Romantic Theatre

Drama, Performance, and Society, 1790–1840

Catherine Burroughs

This is the first collection of essays to examine the extraordinary contribution of women playwrights, actors, translators, critics and managers who worked in British theatre during the romantic period. Leading scholars shed new light on the role of women well-known during their day but neglected for some 150 years.

£37.50 HB 0 521 662249 360pp

The Economics of the British Stage, 1800–1914

Tracy C. Davis

British theatre became big business in the nineteenth century, and the role of laissez-faire in this cultural industry consistently troubled the government. This is the first full-length study to investigate the theatre's growth from an economic perspective, reflecting the debates of theorists from Adam Smith to Alfred Marshall.

£50.00 HB 0 521 571154 524pp

Cambridge books are available from good bookshops. Alternatively you may order direct using your credit card. Phone UK +44 (0)1223 326050, fax UK +44 (0)1223 326111, or email directcustserve@cambridge.org

Illegitimate Theatre in London, 1770–1840

Jane Moody

This is the first book to explore the institutions, genres, and performance history of an illegitimate theatre which emerged in British dramatic culture towards the end of the eighteenth century.

£37.50 HB 0 521 563763 280pp

The French Revolution and the London Stage, 1789–1805

George Taylor

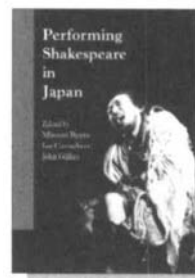

This book looks at how British drama and popular entertainment were affected by the ideas and events of the French Revolution and Napoleonic Wars. By a cultural analysis of the popular entertainment and theatre performances of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries it reveals issues of ideological conflict and psychological stress.

£40.00 HB 0 521 630525 274pp

Performing Shakespeare in Japan

Edited by Minami Ryuta, Ian Carruthers and John Gillies

Fourteen essays on topics from over one hundred years of Shakespeare performance in Japan. In addition, there are interviews with leading directors and with a leading performer. Unlike the very few existing books on Japanese Shakespeare, this book concentrates on modern and postmodern theatre.

£45.00 HB 0 521 782449 274pp

CANADIAN THEATRE REVIEW

For more than 25 years, Canadian Theatre Review has provided the Canadian theatre community with in-depth feature articles, forums for discussion, interviews and complete and original scripts written by and about its members.

Each issue of CTR includes at least one complete playscript, by both new and established playwrights, related to the issue theme, along with insightful articles and informative reviews that are not to be missed by anyone with an interest in theatre.

Themes such as opera and music theatre; raves, parties and streets; the role of comedic actors on stage; new challenges in theatre education; puppets; South Asian Canadian theatre; publishing Canadian theatre; scenography; and many more are carefully selected by CTR's team of theatre professionals to strategically align the theatre enthusiast with the latest theatre events, productions and issues.

Whether you are an established playwright or an up-and-coming stage actor, each issue of Canadian Theatre Review will keep you on the leading edge of theatre in Canada. Canadian Theatre Review delivers the contemporary issues facing today's theatre professional.

RATES FOR 2001

Institutions
$75.00

Individuals
$35.00

Student
$30.00

For subscribers outside Canada, the rates are payable in US funds. Canadian orders please add 7% GST or 15% HST where applicable.

Prices are subject to change without notice.

Canadian Theatre Review

University of Toronto Press - Journals Division
5201 Dufferin Street Toronto, Ontario M3H 5T8
Tel: (416) 667-7810 Fax: (416) 667-7881
Toll Free Fax in North America: (800) 221-9985
email: journals@utpress.utoronto.ca
www.utpjournals.com

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

0266-464X(200108)17:3;1-Q

ISBN 0-521-00280-X

9 780521 002806