

The real world, now in English

Readers International announces a remarkable series in contemporary world literature. Each hardcover volume, by subscription, is just $7.95 (Retail prices average $13.35).

For the first time in English – the making of Nicaragua. Thirty years of their history dramatically recreated in To Bury Our Fathers, the panoramic novel by Sergio Ramirez, his country's foremost prose artist and a civilian leader of the Sandinista revolution.

Written in exile before the Sandinistas swept to power, To Bury Our Fathers brings alive the cruelty and pathos of the Somoza era – essential reading for understanding today's events in Central America. National Guardsmen, guerillas, exiles, itinerant traders, cabaret singers, prostitutes and would-be presidents people a spirited, savage, lyrical world, brilliantly imagined by a Latin American prose master.

Go next to Soweto: The children of South Africa's shanty towns struggle in revolt. The noted black poet Siphos Sepamla is first to cast these events in a novel. An instant best-seller in 1981 in South Africa, the government moved swiftly to stop further editions. A Ride on the Whirlwind returns to print, here and in South Africa, now more timely than ever.

Direct from China: the impact of the Cultural Revolution is brought home to us in the lucid, personal meditation of Yang Jiang, an elderly woman scholar. Her story, A Cadre School Life: Six Chapters, is a unique literary record of Mao's attempt to "re-educate" 20 million Chinese, the entire intelligentsia of the most populous nation on earth.

These are worlds we cannot hope to see except through literature. And now such ground-breaking books are available at last in outstanding English translations commissioned for Readers Inter-

How does RI select the books? Instrumental in these decisions is our Advisory Board – translators, editors, and writers from around the world, including Dennis Brutus, Eduardo Galeano, Nawal al Saadawi, Edward Said, and Josef Skvorecky. And the books are further distinguished in several ways:

Each was initially banned or censored at home: RI is particularly committed to conserving literature in danger.

Each is current – from the past 10 years.

And each book is new to readers here – although many have been acclaimed in European editions.

Your subscription assures you of a powerfully good read every two months. It also assures some of the world's most gifted, original writers the means of being heard in today's most powerful international language, English. Please return the coupon right away to receive your first book.
