

Contents

Philosophical Reflections Across Cultures

Guest editor: Giovanni Puglisi

Introduction 3

Articles

UNESCO, Philosophy, and Human Rights 4

Giovanni Puglisi

Modernity and Subjectivity: Enabling Asian Consciousness of Multi-Identity 8

In-Suk Cha

Inherent Dignity: The Essence of Human Rights (or How to Get from Dignity to Political Power) 21

Anat Biletzki

The Ontology of Coexistence: From Cogito to Facio 27

Zhao Tingyang

The Woman between Public Order and Disorder: The Ambiguities of Modernity 37

Aminata Diaw

Governance, Sovereignty and Profane Hope in a Globalised
Catastrophe-World 46

Francisco Naishtat

The Collision of Marxism and Derrida's Deconstruction in China 56

Wei Xiaoping

Durkheim, Wittgenstein and the Norms of Thought 63

Razmig Keucheyan

Philosophy as Therapy	73
Nikolay Omelchenko
States of Violence and Infatuation in Politics: The Idea of Right at the Heart of their Excesses	82
Stéphane Douailler
Science and Philosophy	89
Paolo Parrini
Social Gender Identities and Civil Liberties: The Law and Reality	102
Ariane Djossou
Chronicle: Renée Vivien, From One Century to Another	113
Nicole G. Albert
Book review
Demetra Sfondoni-Mentzou, Aristotle Today: Aspects of Aristotle's Philosophy of Nature from the Perspective of Contemporary Philosophy of Science. Thessaloniki: ZITI, 2010.	118
Evanghelos Moutsopoulos
Notes on the Contributors	119
Abstracts	121