Oxford Classical Dictionary

Compiled by N. G. L. Hammond and H. H. Scullard

This new edition takes account of the great changes that have occurred in classical learning since the dictionary's first publication in 1949. It contains more articles, many new ones, and all surviving articles have been revised. Second edition £6.30

Hesiod : Theogonia ; Opera et Dies ; Scutum ; Fragmenta Selecta

Edited by Friedrich Solmsen, R. Merkelbach and M. L. West

£1.25 Oxford Classical Texts

Athenian Coinage 480–449 B.C.

Chester G. Starr

During this period Athens gained naval empire abroad and became an ever more democratic state at home. The numismatic record is especially vital because other sources are scanty, but the products of the Athenian mind have never before been systematically arranged so that their important evidence could be safely utilized.

26 plates £3.25

Herodotus : An Interpretative Essay

Charles W. Fornara

Herodotus is here set into the context of his own times, special attention being paid to his attitude to Athens and Pericles. We follow his maturing in intellect and technique, from the traveller telling tales to the artist using techniques of drama to convey important truths. £1.75

The Ancient Greeks

Chester G. Starr

A realistic account of life in ancient Greece as experienced by an ordinary citizen of the time, this work recreates for students and general readers a rich and fascinating period. The narrative focuses on Athens at about 440 B.C., but also traces the development of Greece from Mycenaean times through the expansion of culture following Alexander's conquests. 1 map, text illustrations throughout Paper covers £1.50 OUP New York

The Prehistoric Antiquities of the Maltese Islands

J. D. EVANS

Professor Evans brings together in one volume all the material currently available for reconstructing the prehistory of the Maltese islands. The body of the work is a survey consisting of detailed descriptions of all the sites and monuments, and of the excavation work that has been done on them, together with catalogues of the objects found in them. A bibliography is given for each site and its chronology discussed. The many plans include new surveys of all the major monuments, and some plans of minor ones which have not been published previously. The material from them is illustrated with a large number of drawings and photographs. A long final section of the text traces the cultural development of the islands in the prehistoric period in the light of the total evidence, including that of the most recent excavations. The aim has been to produce a book which will serve at once as a work of reference and as a tool for the researcher. 67 line illustrations, 70 plates.

0 485 11093 8      £15.00

Parabasis and Animal Choruses

G. M. SIFAKIS

A new critical examination of the function, form and origins of the chorus in Greek drama. Challenging all previous analyses of the subject Professor Sifakis, author of Studies in the History of Hellenistic Drama, attacks what is to him a false notion of 'dramatic illusion'. Illustrated

0 485 11126 8      £4.00

CAMBRIDGE CLASSICAL TEXTS AND COMMENTARIES 12

Euripides: *Phaethon

Edited by JAMES DIGGLE

Dr Diggle has examined all the manuscript evidence afresh and offers many new decipherments. He gives a text of the play and of the hypothesis, an exegetical commentary, prolegomena and appendices, in which he discusses the treatment of the Phaethon myth in classical literature and attempts a reconstruction of the plot of the play. '... he has done everything possible to interpret and breathe life into these meagre bones ... it is a pleasure to follow so excellently conducted an autopsy.'

The Cambridge Ancient History

Third edition

Volume 1, Part 2: The Early History of the Middle East

Edited by I.E.S. EDWARDS, C.J. GADD and N.G.L. HAMMOND

Because of the growth in knowledge in the past 45 years, Volumes 1 and 2 of the Cambridge Ancient History have been rewritten, increased in size and each divided into two parts. This part deals with the history of the Near East from about 3,000 to 1,750 B.C.

£6.00 net

The Knossos Tablets

A Transliteration

Fourth edition

JOHN CHADWICK, J.T. KILLEN and J.P. OLIVIER

A transliteration of all the texts in Linear B script found at Knossos (Crete). Earlier editions of these transliterations were published by the Institute of Classical Studies, University of London. Improvements to the texts have been so substantial since the third edition appeared in 1964 that a fourth edition is now required.

£3.00 net

Classical Influences on European Culture A.D. 500–1500

Edited by R.R. BOLGAR

A collection of 27 papers first read at the International Conference on Classical Influences at King's College, Cambridge, in 1969. All the contributors are concerned with the spread and influence of classical (particularly Roman) civilization through European cultures.

NEW FROM METHUEN

The Imagery of Euripides

A Study in the Dramatic Use of Pictorial Language

Shirley A. Barlow

The purpose of this study is to demonstrate, by a close analysis of Euripides' use of language, and his use of imagery in particular, that his imaginative powers differ in kind, rather than in quality, from those of Aeschylus and Sophocles, and that they serve a different purpose in the structure of the plays. The author's very readable and persuasive argument clearly illustrates Euripides' originality and suggests that a clearer appreciation of his poetic qualities would lead to a fuller understanding of the plays. £3.50

Two Hundred Poems from the Greek Anthology

Selected and translated by
Robin Skelton

Robin Skelton has made a broad selection from the Anthology, and has translated the pieces freely into English verse, using contemporary idiom where necessary; many of the poems have not previously appeared in English versions. An introduction sketches the history of the Anthology and its influence on English literature. £1.25

Now available as a University Paperback

The Archaeology of Crete

J. D. S. Pendlebury

(Methuen's Handbooks of Archaeology)

"The reissue of this classic book answers a great need among both students and general readers . . . J. Pendlebury was the first scholar to set out the grammar of Minoan archaeology within the compass of a single volume. Since then, there have been many complementary studies . . . yet Pendlebury is still the definitive work on the material record of ancient Crete." The Times Literary Supplement

Holidays in Greece and Asia Minor

WINGS Limited offer many varied holidays to Greece and the Aegean, Turkey and the coast of Asia Minor.

Hellenic Air Cruises visit at leisure three centres: Athens, Rhodes and Crete. During the past fourteen years over 10,000 people have taken part in these cruises.

A coach tour of Greece (flying first to Athens) visits Olympia, Sparta and Mistra, Epidaurus, Tiryns, Mycenae and Delphi, accompanied by a leading Greek archaeological guide. The tour throughout is escorted by our own representative. A similar tour of Northern Greece includes Dodoni, Philippi, Meteora and the island of Thasos.

Charges are very reasonable and full details will be found in the WINGS programme, available on request.

LANTERN SLIDES

The Slides Collection contains 4000 coloured slides (2" × 2") covering a wide variety of subjects, including sites on the Greek mainland, the Greek islands, Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire, Etruscan tomb paintings, Roman frescoes and mosaics and Greek vases: objects from the Greek and Roman Life room of the British Museum are well represented. Coloured sets (2" × 2") are also available, with notes, on the Athenian Agora, Athens, Lerna, Greek Papyri, Greek Gods and Heroes, Sicily and Magna Graecia, Roman Coins, Greek Sculpture, Greek and Roman Jewellery, Greek and Roman Terracottas, Gallia Narbonensis (the Greek sites) and the Trojan Horse in Classical Art. The sets on Pompeii, Art in Roman Britain, Classical Costume and the Roman Imperial Army in Britain (G. Webster) are also available in the form of film-strips. There is also a black and white set on Architecture (2" × 2").

The collection of 3¼" × 3¼" black and white slides, numbering 10,000, covers a similarly wide range of subjects, and there are about 40 sets of slides on specific subjects.

A catalogue of coloured slides is available at 42p a copy.

Slides may be hired by members of each society at a charge of 50p a set, or 1½p for individual slides, plus postage.

Copies of coloured slides may be bought for 25p each.

The annual subscription to each Society is £3. SCHOOLS ARE ELIGIBLE FOR MEMBERSHIP. For particulars apply to the Secretary of either Society at 31-34 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0PP.

THE BRITISH ACADEMY

CROMER GREEK PRIZE

WITH the view of maintaining and encouraging the study of Greek, particularly among the young, the first Earl of Cromer founded a Prize, to be administered by the British Academy, for the best Essay on any subject connected with the language, history, art, literature, or philosophy of Ancient Greece.

The next Prize, which is ordinarily a sum of £150, will be awarded in 1972 under the following Rules:—

1. The competition is open to all British subjects and citizens of Eire of either sex who will be under thirty-two years of age on 31 December preceding the award.
2. Any Essay which has already received or is in competition for another prize of the same nature will be inadmissible. A candidate to whom the Prize has been awarded will not be eligible to compete for it again. But an Essay which has not received the Prize may be submitted again (with or without alteration) in a future year so long as the writer remains eligible under Rule 1.
3. Consideration of the adjudicators shall be limited to work submitted to them, whether published or unpublished, not exceeding 20,000 words in length.
4. Essays must be sent in to the Secretary of the Academy on or before 31 December of the year preceding the award. They must be typed or printed and should have a note attached stating the main sources of information used.

Communications should be addressed to 'The Secretary of the British Academy, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London, W1V 0NS'.
