

Press, $3.75), is a biography of the late Cardinal Merry del Val. It has the distinction of a preface by the Spanish Ambassador to the Netherlands, the Marqués de Merry del Val. The latter designates this evocation of the Cardinal's life as 'excellent and extremely well-informed'.

In a pleasant little phantasy THE CHRONICLE OF THOMAS FRITH, O.P. (Blackfriars Publications, 13s. 6d.), S.M.C. has given a stirring narrative of an imaginary journey from England to the Near East in the middle of the thirteenth century by an English Dominican who meets many great saints of the Order then working in Poland, Hungary and Russia. Brother Thomas is present at the death of St Hyacinth, he witnesses miracles by St Margaret, and he had studied at Sanodomir under Blessed Sadoc, afterwards martyred with his community of forty friars. Even if the task of combining fact and fiction at times seems almost too difficult, nevertheless the authoress does succeed in achieving her aim to give a vivid picture of Christian and infidel in a death struggle which is still going on in those same countries of eastern Europe.
