Russia, China, and the West

ISAAC DEUTSCHER Edited by Fred Halliday

This volume contains a selection of Isaac Deutscher's articles written between 1953 and 1966 and provides an exemplary Marxist introduction to the politics of the era from the death of Stalin to the Cultural Revolution. 50/-

The Rise of Modern China

IMMANUEL C. T. HSÜ

This textbook attempts a new synthesis of the history of modern China, based on research and scholarship of recent years. It concentrates on political history, but covers intellectual, social, and economic developments as well. It begins with a survey of the 'traditional' state and society during the 1600-1800 period as a prerequisite to the detailed study of the development of the Chinese nation in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. 85/- OUP New York

Vietnam and China 1938-1954

Ho Chi Minh's Relations with Nationalist and Communist China

KING C. CHEN

Professor Chen examines how and why the United States came to be involved in the Vietnam war. He describes Ho Chi Minh's rise to leadership of the Vietnamese Communist Party and his relations with the Nationalists and then the Communists in China. 5 maps £6 Princeton University Press

Canton Under Communism

Programme and Politics in a Provincial Capital 1949-1968

EZRA F. VOGEL

The history, dynamics, and realities of Chinese life and politics as reflected in one region, Canton, are comprehensively described in this book, based on newspapers, reports of foreign travellers and of refugees, and printed works from Canton, as well as sources outside China. 8 plates 2 maps £6/15/- Harvard University Press

Modern Chinese Stories

Selected and edited by W. J. F. Jenner

Translated by W. J. F. Jenner and Gladys Yang

Little contemporary Chinese writing has been published in the West; the twenty stories in this new collection, covering the half-century up to 1963, document profound changes in Chinese life and thought. 12/- Oxford Paperbacks

Manuscripts

The China Quarterly welcomes the submission of manuscripts on all aspects of contemporary China and from all points of view, including those which deal with Taiwan and Overseas Chinese. Articles on China prior to 1949 are also welcome, particularly, but not exclusively, when these relate directly to contemporary China or to the history of the Chinese Communist Party. Articles should be submitted, together with a duplicate copy, to the editorial office. They should be typed in double spacing and, preferably, conform to the styling of The China Quarterly.

The China Quarterly is published by the Contemporary China Institute of the School of Oriental and African Studies, London University, with the support of the International Association for Cultural Freedom. The views expressed in articles are those of individual authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the Contemporary China Institute.
