

Law & Society Review
BASIC STYLE SHEET

All manuscripts should be typed double spaced on one side only. Rejected manuscripts cannot ordinarily be returned. While manuscripts need not conform to this style sheet at the time of submission, all manuscripts must include footnotes and a list of references, and all accepted manuscripts must be revised by the author to conform to the style of the Review. The rules listed below supplement the manuscript information on the inside front cover of the Review. Authors are urged to consult recent issues of this journal for further illustrations. A more detailed style sheet is available from the editorial office.

1. CITATIONS: All notes that consist merely of supporting citations should be placed in parentheses in the text. They should follow the statement they support and be in the following style:

(last name of author, year: page number or numbers to which you refer, if any)

EXAMPLE: . . . the opposition in Paris (Rudé, 1967: 167).

2. FOOTNOTES: All footnotes should be numbered sequentially and placed immediately after the text. They should contain only substantive comments and additional references not immediately relevant to the text.

3. REFERENCES: References are to be placed at the end of the manuscript and double spaced. For more than one publication by the same author, list them in chronological order beginning with the oldest. For more than one publication in one year by the same author, use small letters to distinguish them (e.g., 1970a; 1970b).

a. BOOKS: LAST NAME, First name (year) Title of book.
City: Publisher.

EXAMPLE: ARNOLD, Thurman W. (1935) The Symbols of Government. New York: Harcourt, Brace and World.

b. ARTICLES: LAST NAME, First name (year) "Title of article," volume number Journal initial page of article (month and day only if each issue is separately paginated).

EXAMPLE: STERN, Curt (1970) "The Continuity of Genetics," 99 Daedalus 882.

4. TABLES AND FIGURES: Tables should approximate the appearance of printed tables. Figures should be camera ready. Tables and/or figures should be placed at the end of the text, after footnotes and references. Their location within the text should be indicated as follows:

Table 1 about here

5. ABSTRACTS: All articles should include an abstract of between 50 and 100 words.

Rhetoric of the Human Sciences

Democracy and Punishment

Disciplinary Origins of the United States

Thomas L. Dumm

More than a study of the American prison, Democracy and Punishment is a chronicle of the emergence of modern punishment policies, a critique of the political theory and practice of liberal democratic government, and a genealogy of modern power.

Moral Argument and Social Vision in the Courts

A Study of Tort Accident Law

Henry J. Steiner

In this book, Steiner explores the argument of appellate courts in developing legal doctrine. He bases his inquiry on an analysis of the striking changes since the 1950s in tort accident law's rules.

The Civil Rights Society

The Social Construction of Victims

Kristin Bumiller

"The Civil Rights Society stakes out new intellectual ground in the study of discrimination. It is informed by an imposing melange of social theory and firmly anchored in a convincing interpretation of interview data. It is a rich and heady mixture."—Stuart A. Scheingold, University of Washington, Seattle

In a provocative examination of the role of law in promoting social change, Kristin Bumiller contends that one effect of antidiscrimination laws has been to perpetuate the victimization of the people they were intended to benefit. Victims may be reluctant to utilize the law when they feel that it acknowledges their vulnerability, compromises their dignity, and places them in an unwinnable confrontation with more powerful individuals and institutions.

"Bumiller provides an original and badly needed perspective for understanding anti-discrimination law, and raises probing and disturbing questions."—Murray Edelman, University of Wisconsin, Madison
