

New in paperback

Debt's Dominion

A History of Bankruptcy Law in America

David A. Skeel, Jr.

"Anyone seeking to understand both the evolving shape of bankruptcy law in America and its impacts on American legal, social, and economic trends would find Skeel's book a very useful starting place. Accessibly written and yet full of highly technical information, Debt's Dominion is one of the best books on bankruptcy currently available."—Charles L. Zelden, Journal of American History

Paper $18.95 ISBN 0-691-11637-7

PRINCETON
University Press

800-777-4726 • READ EXCERPTS ONLINE
WWW.PUP.PRINCETON.EDU

New from The MIT Press

The Government Machine

A Revolutionary History of the Computer

Jon Agar

"In this richly detailed and subtly argued study of British bureaucracy since the eighteenth century, Agar shows how mechanization, both discursive and material, gradually transformed the 'machinery of government' from a metaphor to a guiding force. Viewed in that longer historical perspective, the computer takes its place in a line of technologies inspired by a technocratic vision of public administration and designed to extend the informational resources on which it rests." — Michael S. Mahoney, Professor of History, Princeton University

History of Computing series • 576 pp., 52 illus. $50

now in paperback

A Ghost's Memoir

The Making of Alfred P. Sloan's My Years with General Motors

John McDonald

foreword by Dan Seligman

"McDonald has given us what may be the best book about business, and about book publishing, to appear this year."

— Marketplace

220 pp. $15.95 paper

To order call 800-405-1619.

Prices subject to change without notice.

<http://mitpress.mit.edu>

A History of Small Business in America

MANSEL G. BLACKFORD

Second Edition

"A cogent and readable addition to our understanding of American business, one that should be strongly considered by anyone teaching an American business history course."—Business History Review

The Luther Hartwell Hodges Series on Business, Society, and the State

232 pp. $45.00 cloth / $18.95 paper

Yankee Don't Go Home!

Mexican Nationalism, American Business Culture, and the Shaping of Modern Mexico, 1920–1950

JULIO MORENO

"Moreno address[es] important issues of U.S. business in Mexico. . . . He offers extensive new evidence, analysis, and a highly readable narrative. . . . A very significant contribution."—Linda B. Hall, University of New Mexico

The Luther Hartwell Hodges Series on Business, Society, and the State

Approx. 384 pp., 30 illus. $59.95 cloth / $21.95 paper

C. F. Martin and His Guitars, 1796–1873

PHILIP F. GURA

"An incredibly valuable addition to the understanding of our company and family archives. No one before has taken the time to unravel his amazing story with such fastidious detail."—C. F. Martin IV, Chairman and CEO, C. F. Martin & Co.

352 pp., 97 color / 88 b&w illus. $45.00 cloth

America's Instrument

The Banjo in the Nineteenth Century

PHILIP F. GURA & JAMES F. BOLLMAN

ASCAP-Deems Taylor Special Citation, American Society of Composers, Authors & Publishers

"Beautifully produced."—Times Literary Supplement

"This attractive, finely printed book relates the history of the production, distribution, and marketing of the banjo over the course of the 19th century."

—AB Bookman's Weekly

400 pp., 97 color / 156 b&w illus. $49.95 cloth

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA PRESS

at bookstores or 800-848-6224 | www.uncpress.unc.edu

Manufacturing Revolution

The Intellectual Origins of Early American Industry
Lawrence A. Peskin

"A cultural, social, and economic history of early American boosterism, with a fine-grained account of intellectual change on a crucial issue over a long period."—John E. Crowley, Dalhousie University, author of The Invention of Comfort

Studies in Early American Economy and Society from the Library Company of Philadelphia: Cathy Matson, Series Editor

$49.95 hardcover

Freedom from Want

American Liberalism and the Idea of the Consumer
Kathleen G. Donohue

"A truly original book. Unusually bold and polished, it adds admirably to our understanding of the emergence of consumer ideology and the reshaping of American liberalism and politics."—Daniel Horowitz, Smith College

New Studies in American Intellectual and Cultural History: Howard Brick, Series Editor

$45.95 hardcover

The New York, Susquehanna & Western Railroad

Robert E. Mohowski

"The story of the New York, Susquehanna & Western is a fascinating addition to American railroad corporate history."—John W. Barriger IV, from the Foreword

$34.95 hardcover

Inventing the Cotton Gin

Machine and Myth in Antebellum America
Angela Lakwete

"Lakwete's compelling and revisionist book on the cotton gin is a major contribution to the history of southern technology."—Pete Daniel, Curator, National Museum of American History

Johns Hopkins Studies in the History of Technology: Merritt Roe Smith, Series Editor

$45.00 hardcover

Eating Smoke

Fire in Urban America, 1800–1950

Mark Tebeau

"Tebeau has interwoven two stories. One charts the changes in firefighting from voluntary organizations to rationalized municipal services; the other moves the fire insurance industry from a focus on observation, to quantification, to prevention of urban fires."

—Angel Kwolek-Folland, University of Florida
$49.95 hardcover

Capital's Utopia

Vandergrift, Pennsylvania, 1855–1916

Anne E. Mosher

"The story of Vandergrift becomes a crucial and unexplored intersection between industrial land use and community planning all wrapped in the issues of economic class and paternalism that defined the Gilded Age."—Brian Black, Pennsylvania State University

Creating the North American Landscape: Gregory Conniff, Edward K. Muller, and David Schuyler, Consulting Editors; George F. Thompson, Series Founder and Director
$45.00 hardcover

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Manuscripts are considered for publication on the understanding that they are not concurrently under consideration elsewhere and that the material—in substance as well as form—has not been previously published.

Three copies of the manuscript should be submitted.

Authors should identify themselves only on a separate title page that provides name, mailing address, and telephone number. Authors must also remember not to identify themselves in the body of the manuscript; specifically, references to their own work in the text should be in the third person, and citations should be written without possessive pronouns—not “See my”

Potential contributors should initially submit hard copy, not diskettes, but it will save considerable work for all parties in the event of acceptance if authors follow a few rules from the beginning:

- In general, use as few formatting commands as possible.
- Left justify text.
- Do not hyphenate words at the end of lines.
- ALL material—including extracted quotations and notes—must be double spaced.
- Notes should be numbered consecutively and citations should be placed as footnotes or endnotes formatted as indicated by The Chicago Manual of Style (1993).
- Each table and figure must be accompanied by a complete source.

Each article should be accompanied by an abstract of 75 to 100 words outlining the main point(s) of the paper and placing the article in context. Subheads should be used to divide the manuscript into three or four sections (or more, depending on length). We do not have an upper or lower page limit, but articles usually run between 25 and 50 typescript pages, including notes and other material.

We are always eager to publish illustrations, but authors should not include originals of illustrative materials at the time of submission; photocopies of such material may be included. Authors are responsible for obtaining all illustrative materials and permissions for reproduction, and for writing captions.

Authors of accepted manuscripts will receive two copies of the issue in which the article appears and twenty-five offprints.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

We use the 14th edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (1993) and spell and hyphenate words according to Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary.

The journal encourages authors to use gender-neutral prose in all cases where it is not anachronistic to do so; male nouns and pronouns should not be used to refer to people of both sexes. We use the day-month-year form for dates, as in 11 Feb. 1998, in the notes, but in the text, dates are written month-day-year, as in February 11, 1998. Double quotation marks should be used for direct quotation; single quotation marks are used for quoted material inside quotations.

SAMPLE CITATION FORMS

Book: Alfred D. Chandler Jr., The Visible Hand: The Managerial Revolution in American Business (Cambridge, Mass., 1977), 321–2.

Journal: Charles Cheape, “Not Politicians but Sound Businessmen: Norton Company and the Third Reich,” Business History Review 62 (Autumn 1988): 444–66.

Note that we do not include the publisher in book citations. We do not use loc. cit., op. cit., or idem., but ibid. (not italicized) may be used.

0007-6805 (200421) 78:1;1-N