

Berkshire Conference of Women Historians

The Berkshire Conference of Women Historians will award its annual prizes for the best book and the best article in any field of history written by a woman and published during 1981. Submissions for the Book Award should be sent to: Jean Christie, 34 Bellingham Lane, Great Neck, NY 11023. Submissions for the Article Award should be sent to: Asunción Lavrin, Department of History, Howard University, Washington, DC 20059. Two copies of the book or article are required. Deadline for submission: February 1, 1982.

Child Development Project in Morocco

A project on child development, literacy and education in Morocco. A three-year project on children's acquisition of literacy in traditional (kuttab) and modern schools will begin in 1981 in both rural and urban settings in Morocco. The project is being organized jointly by Université Mohamed V and the University of Pennsylvania. Individuals with the appropriate language skills (Maghrebi Arabic, Berber, French), and with an interest in doing fieldwork, are encouraged to respond. Persons interested in doing fieldwork for doctoral dissertations are particularly welcomed, as are persons of any nationality or either sex. Contact: Dr. Daniel A. Wagner, 714 Larsen Hall, Harvard University, Cambridge, MA 02138. Telephone: 617/495-3440.

New Annual for Arabic Literature

Mundus Arabicus (1981) is a new annual publication devoted to Arabic literature, edited by a group of scholars and bibliographers, among them:

- Fawzi Abdurazak, Harvard College Library;
- Salih Jawad Altoma, Indiana University;
- Issa J. Boullata, McGill University;
- Muhsin S. Mahdi, Harvard University; and
- David H. Partington, Harvard College Library

The first volume is entitled: Arab Writers in America: Critical Essays and Annotated Bibliography. The forthcoming volume of Mundus Arabicus (1982) will be entitled: Arabic Literature in North Africa Since 1900. Published by Dar Mahjar, Cambridge, Mundus Arabicus (26 x 18 cm.; iv, 274 pp.), sells for $22.00 plus 75¢ (regular postage) to individuals; and $30.00 plus postage to libraries, institutions and organizations. Forward orders to: Dar Mahjar, P.O. Box 56, Cambridge, MA 02238.

Peasant Studies

The University of Utah announces the resumption of publication of the quarterly journal, Peasant Studies, beginning with Volume IX, No. 1, in fall 1981. The previous eight volumes were produced under the sponsorship of the University of Pittsburgh.

The journal will continue to feature articles, extended review essays, and news and announcements of current research and conferences, focusing on contemporary and historical peasants and peasant societies. Contributions are invited from such diverse fields as anthropology, economics, geography, history, political science and sociology, as well as those drawing on interdisciplinary perspectives.