“Absentees is essential reading for anyone interested in the legal or literary treatment of personhood in all its forms, whether dead, missing, diminished, or presumptively whole.”

—Bernadette Meyler, Carl and Sheila Spaeth Professor of Law, Stanford University, and author of Theaters of Pardoning

“Rehistoricizing recent postapocalyptic narratives and dividing the field into provocative but useful new categories, Flowers of Time is perceptive and thorough at every level.”

—Timothy S. Murphy, Oklahoma State University

“Lucid and stimulating.... This accessible work provides an electric jolt to African literary studies.”

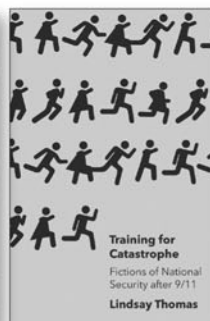

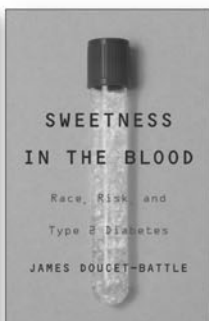

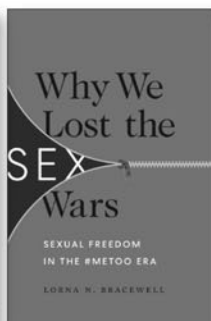

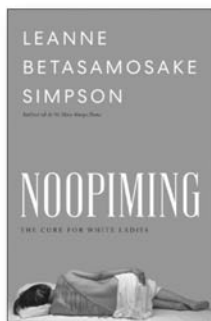

—Ato Quayson, Stanford University

“Ambitious and far-reaching, Inventions of Nemesis offers a considerable reorientation of utopian studies.”

—Patrick Parrinder, author of Utopian Literature and Science
