TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Three copies of any article or note should be submitted, and at least one copy must be in a form suitable for sending to the printer. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript. Library of Congress transliteration should be used. Articles should contain a final section in which the author sets out his main conclusions in a way which will be intelligible to the nonspecialist reader. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five pages, except where especially justified, e.g., by extensive documentation, tables, or charts. Manuscripts will not be returned unless specifically requested. The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

BUKHARIN

A Political Biography by Stephen Cohen

"I confidently predict that this magnificent book will come to be regarded by those whose opinions are worth listening to as one of the two or three really outstanding studies in the history of the Soviet Union of the past twenty-five years."

—Leonard Shapiro, N. Y. Review of Books

"A milestone in Soviet studies."

—Harrison E. Salisbury, N. Y. Times Book Review

"Fascinating and moving . . . Brilliantly fulfills the major task of historical discovery and interpretation involved in restoring Bukharin to his place in history."

—Frederick Barghoorn, Washington Post

"Masterful . . . One of the most significant books on Soviet politics and history in recent years . . . I think that Cohen's work will come to be recognized as absolutely essential reading for every person who hopes to gain an adequate understanding of Soviet history."—Loren Graham, Columbia University

"A major contribution . . . a definitive biography."

—Alexander Erlich, Columbia University

"Will undoubtedly remain the definitive study of Bukharin for a long time to come."—Paul Avrich, Queens College
