Stravinsky

The composer and his works

ERIC WALTER WHITE

A major study of Stravinsky, opening with a sketch of his life and career as composer, executant and conductor. It includes a register of his compositions and arrangements, together with reprints of his less accessible occasional writings, and the text of the Catalogue of Manuscripts compiled by Robert Craft, now printed for the first time.

This thoroughly documented work is illustrated with 16 photographs and 200 music examples. 6 gns.

IGOR STRAVINSKY

(b. 1882)

the greatest living composer celebrates his 85th birthday on June 17th

“Over the last few years, thanks to the enlightenment of the CBS company, Stravinsky has patiently been recording his own work, so that future generations as well as having the scores and their markings to consult will have aural accounts of what the composer intended.” Edward Greenfield, The Guardian
