The AMERICAN JOURNAL OF LAW & MEDICINE was founded in response to the need for a scholarly yet pragmatic publication encompassing all aspects of medico-legal relations. The JOURNAL seeks to provide a broad perspective on our complex health care system, to encourage interdisciplinary communication, and to stimulate creative solutions to the pressing medicolegal problems of our time.

In addition to serving as a forum for analyses and proposals in such areas as health law and policy, legal insurance medicine, and bioethics, the JOURNAL offers a wide variety of pertinent reference materials in these and related areas.

The JOURNAL serves persons from a variety of fields who seek to understand and to influence medicolegal developments: physicians, other health care providers, and health administrators; lawyers; health analysts and planners; researchers and educators in health specialties; judges, legislators, and government administrators; insurance officials; consumer advocates and concerned members of the general public.

The JOURNAL is published in the Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter by the American Society of Law & Medicine and the Boston University School of Law. All decisions concerning the content of the JOURNAL are made by the joint American Society of Law & Medicine/Boston University School of Law Editorial Policy Committee. Statements of fact and opinion are the responsibility of the authors alone, and are not necessarily endorsed by the editors, the Society, or the law school.

The Editors invite the submission of manuscripts on medicolegal topics. For details, see inside back cover. Editorial communications, including original manuscripts, and requests for permission to reproduce JOURNAL material, should be addressed to Editor-in-Chief, American Journal of Law & Medicine, 209 Bay State Road, Boston, Massachusetts 02215. Editorial phone: (617) 353-2953.

Business correspondence, including subscription and advertising correspondence, should be addressed to the Executive Director, American Society of Law & Medicine, 520 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02215. Business phone: (617) 262-4992.

Missing copies of the JOURNAL will be sent free of charge to subscribers or members of the Society provided that notice of such claim is received at the Society's subscription office within one month of receipt of the next issue published. Requests made after this period will be billed at the regular single issue price of $10.

Subscriptions: $40.00 per year for institutions, and for individuals who are not members of the American Society of Law & Medicine. Foreign subscribers should remit, for a year's subscription, an additional $15.00 for air mail postage or an additional $5.00 for surface rate postage.

Members of the American Society of Law & Medicine receive a free subscription to the JOURNAL as part of their dues ($70.00 for 1981). Information concerning membership is available from the Executive Director, American Society of Law & Medicine, 520 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02215. Society phone: (617) 262-4992.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF LAW & MEDICINE JOSEPH D. NORRIS, ESQ., FUND

In 1980, the Joseph D. Norris, Esq., Health Law Fund of the American Society of Law & Medicine was established. Thus far, the Fund has awarded three health law fellowships for educational activities associated with the JOURNAL. Each has carried a stipend of $1000 to support a fellow for three weeks' full-time (or its part-time equivalent) for research and educational activities. The Fund intends to award two or more of these fellowships per year.

In addition, the Fund has the following purposes: (1) to solicit charitable contributions for use in financing JOURNAL fellowships and other educational activities specified by the Trustees of the Fund; (2) to finance and support the acquisition of important publications for the Sagall Library of Law, Medicine & Health Care; and (3) to fund such other educational activities related to health law education and research as the Trustees shall deem reasonable.

The most recent recipient of the Joseph D. Norris, Esq., Health Law Fellowship is Ronald Grosser, 1980-81 Articles Editor of the JOURNAL, J.D., Boston University School of Law, 1981.

Those interested should apply to the Editorial office of the JOURNAL, 209 Bay State Road, Boston, MA 02215, (617) 353-2953.
