
William Anderson Dissertation Award Established

The Association's Council has established a William Anderson award to honor annually the best dissertation completed and accepted during the previous year in the general field of intergovernmental relations in the United States. The sponsoring committee for the award is composed of:

Franklin L. Burdette, University of Maryland; Martin Diamond, Northern Illinois University; Leon Epstein, University of Wisconsin, Madison; David Fellman, University of Wisconsin, Madison; Donald Fraser, Member of Congress; Brooks Hayes, Member of Congress (retired); Donald G. Herzberg, Georgetown University; Matthew Holden, Jr., University of Wisconsin, Madison; Charles S. Hyneman, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars; Hubert H. Humphrey, U.S. Senator, Minnesota; Max M. Kampelman, Attorney, Washington, D.C.; Benjamin E. Lippincott, University of Minnesota; William S. Livingston, University of Texas at Austin; Charles H. McLaughlin, University of Minnesota; Robert Merriam, Chairman, Advisory Committee on Intergovernmental Relations; Clara Penniman, University of Wisconsin, Madison; Howard Penniman, Georgetown University; Orville C. Peterson, University of Minnesota; Llewellyn Pfankuchen, University of Wisconsin, Madison; Emmette S. Redford, University of Texas at Austin; Richard M. Scammon, Election Research Center, Washington, D.C.; Elmer B. Staats, Comptroller General of the United States; John E. Turner, University of Minnesota; George W. Warp, University of Minnesota; William H. Young, University of Wisconsin, Madison.

In asking the Council to establish the award, the sponsoring Committee noted that Dr. Anderson, a former President of the Association, was a leading American authority in the areas of local government, public administration, intergovernmental relations and the history of political science. He did much to shape teaching and research in these fields not only at his own university, but throughout the country. He also made major contributions to public service and to the profession of political science and the Association. A memorial to Dr. Anderson was published in the summer 1975 PS. Individuals wishing to contribute to the William Anderson Endowment Fund may do so by sending contributions to the Association. Contributions, which are tax deductible, should be made out to the APSA William Anderson Fund.

Annual Meeting Visiting Foreign National Travel Grant Program

Under two programs, one sponsored by the Asia Foundation and one sponsored by the U.S. Department of State through the Institute of International Education, 32 advanced graduate students and political scientists in the field of political science from 19 nations were awarded travel grants to attend the 1975 Annual Meeting in San Francisco. The individuals and nations represented are:

Asia Foundation

REPUBLIC OF CHINA
Yu-long Ling
Franklin College

INDIA
Ashim K. Basu
Claremont Graduate School

Subrata Kumar Mitra
University of Rochester

JAPAN
Tutomu Odani
University of Chicago

KOREA
Choong Lee
University of Georgia

PAKISTAN
Rashid S. Ahmad
University of Hawaii

THAILAND
Pisan Suriyamongkol
University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana

Radom Wongnom
University of California, Los Angeles

Institute of International Education

CANADA
William D. Coleman
University of Chicago

Elaine M. Todres
University of Pittsburgh

William Anderson