

New 7th Edition

Due in June

BONDAR'S SIMPLIFIED RUSSIAN METHOD

- Connected readings
- Conversational material
- Functional organization
- High-frequency vocabulary
- Only 20 to 30 new words per lesson (total, 1100)
- Graphic presentation of grammar
- Wealth of varied exercises
- Tables of declensions and conjugations

Revised by Mischa Fayer, Head of Russian School, Aron Pressman, and Anastasia Feodorova Pressman, all of Middlebury College. About 400 pages, 6 x 9. About $3.75.

THE widely awaited 7th edition of this textbook classic is adapted to the most recent teaching requirements in conformity with the findings of the AATSEEL Methodology Committee.

Grammatical principles are functionally organized and graphically presented. Apparent difficulties are clarified by the simplicity and logic of the presentation. The gradual and thorough exposition of such subjects as the aspects will greatly facilitate learning.

A refreshing and valuable feature of the book is the carefully graded connected readings of unusual appeal to students.

New!

BASIC RUSSIAN READER

By Rashed Fastenberg, author of Everybody's Russian Reader
and Moses Ratner, New York University

EVERYDAY situational reading material, that will appeal to both teacher and student. Expertly graded, it still maintains a thoroughly adult level of interest. Lesson vocabularies and notes for easy reference, songs with music, and Russian group games are features of this thoroughly modern first-year reader. 269 pages. About $3.00.

Ready in June—Reserve examination copies

2 West 45th Street
New York 19, N. Y.

PITMAN PUBLISHING
CORPORATION

Important Books from LITTLE, BROWN & COMPANY

No Place to Hide By DAVID BRADLEY

- The "quietly explosive" eye-witness account of the Bikini atom-bomb tests and their aftermath. "A startling and amazing appraisal . . . should be read by every American."—OWEN J. ROBERTS. An Atlantic Monthly Press Book. $2.00

The Situation in Asia

By OWEN LATTIMORE. America's most perceptive analyst

- of Asiatic affairs gives clear-cut, authoritative answers to questions about the nations and people of a continent out of control. An Atlantic Monthly Press Book. $2.75

Peace or Anarchy By CORD MEYER Jr.

- "In this slender book it may be possible to find a thread to hold up the sword over our heads. It proceeds with dreadful and firm logic and with convincing documentation."—JOHN HERSEY. An Atlantic Monthly Press Book. $2.50

Scott-King's Modern Europe

By EVELYN WAUGH. In his newest novel the author of

- The Loved One tells a light tale of a middle-aged English school-master's summer holiday that turned into a totalitarian nightmare. $2.00

Little Girl From the City

By L. VORONKOVA. The story of a war-orphaned city child

- who found her way back to contentment on a big Russian farm. "Her adventures have the kind of tough wisdom which any child will recognize."—N. Y. Times, Illustrated. For young readers. An Atlantic Monthly Press Book. $2.00

The Children By NINA FEDOROVA

- The author of The Family tells a moving story of China under Japanese oppression. An Atlantic Monthly Press Book. $2.50

The Family By NINA FEDOROVA

- The famous novel of a Russian Family's experiences in China during the Japanese invasion of 1937. An Atlantic Monthly Press Book. $3.00

At your bookstore

LITTLE, BROWN & COMPANY • BOSTON

