THE LIVING MEMORY GROUP, NORTHAMPTON

The Living Memory Group of Northampton is devoted to collecting local history, mostly by way of tape-recorded interviews and written contributions from older residents of the town. The Group is currently preparing its second book, In Living Memory: A Picture of Health, about amateur and professional medical services in Northampton before 1948. Readers of Medical History who could contribute to this project are invited to write to the Living Memory Group, Northampton Arts Development, Spencer-Dallington Community Centre, Tintern Avenue, Northampton NN5 7BZ, U.K.
