African Books in Print

Livres Africains Disponibles

4th Edition

Edited by Hans M. Zell

New to the Hans Zell Publishers list - African Books in Print, 4th edition. This major reference work contains full bibliographic detail and acquisition data on some 24,000 books published in 45 African countries by more than 700 publishers and research institutions with publishing programmes.

What the experts say:

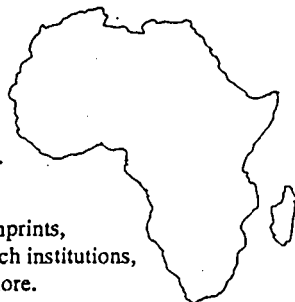

"A valuable tool both to librarians and Africanists for whom no comparable source is available."
- Library Journal

"Contains an impressive amount of information...an indispensable work of reference."
- African Research and Documentation

"An indispensable title for college and university libraries with strong African area interest."
- Choice

15 years since the date of first publication, and 9 years since the last edition, African Books in Print is:

- Up-to-date with thousands of price changes and amendments since the 3rd edition.
- Comprehensive with details of new editions as well as listing in-print titles in English, French and African languages. Over 4,000 of the titles listed are in 120 African languages.
- A single source for information on books from commercial imprints, state-sponsored publishers, as well as publications from research institutions, professional associations, university departments, and many more.
- Easy-to-use with keys to currency abbreviations, language codes, MARC country codes, and abbreviations. Also included is a directory of publishers and their abbreviations - this lists full name and address details of publishers whose titles are included in this edition.
- Arranged in three indexes: Author and Title (Volume I) and Subject (Volume II).

The most comprehensive guide to African books available!
