

THE INTERNATIONAL CALENDAR

2017

ABA TECHSHOW 2017 Conference and Expo

The ABA TECHSHOW Conference and EXPO is where lawyers, legal professionals, and technology all come together. Attendees learn about the most useful and practical technologies available for legal work. Tracks include the Tips Track, with a session on Affordable Alternatives for Legal Research.

March 15–18, 2017

Chicago, Illinois, USA

<http://www.techshow.com/>

American Society of International Law (ASIL) 111th Annual Meeting

What International Law Values. In this Annual Meeting, we seek to consider the normative basis of international law and how those goals are realized in practice. Does international law reflect the values of the international community? How do these values affect the practice and theory of international law? For that matter, should international law reflect the international community's values, and what constituencies ought to be considered in determining what those values are?

April 12–15, 2017

Washington, DC, USA

<https://www.asil.org/annualmeeting>

British and Irish Law Education and Technology Association: BILETA Annual Conference

The theme of the conference is International Perspectives on Emerging Challenges in Law, Technology and Education. Keynote speakers include Professor Joe Cannataci, UN Special Rapporteur on the right to privacy.

April 20–21, 2017

University of Minho, Braga, Portugal

<http://www.bileta.ac.uk/Annual%20Conference/>

International Technology Law Association (ITechLaw) 2017 World Technology Law Conference

The industry's leading technology lawyers speak on cutting edge issues and exchange ideas in lively debates. Gain practical insight into the latest developments in technology law and benefit from the opportunity to network with industry colleagues from all over the world.

May 3–5, 2017

Chicago, Illinois, USA

<http://www.itechlaw.org/conferences/Chicago2017>

EBLIDA NAPLE Joint Conference: European Bureau of Library, Information and Documentation Associations and National Authorities of Public Libraries in Europe

“Let's Rethink” is the conference theme, with sessions on rethinking in a competing environment, library advocacy and our achievements and the way forward.

May 4, 2017

Aarhus, Denmark

<http://conferencemanager.events/eblida2017/conference.html>

Canadian Association of Law Libraries (CALL) 55th Annual Conference

The theme is Celebrate Our History, Create Our Future.

May 7–10, 2017

Ottawa, Ontario, Canada

<http://callacbdconference.com/>

Canadian Association of Research Libraries (CARL-ABRC) 2017 Spring Meeting

May 16–18, 2017

Hamilton, Ontario, Canada

<http://www.carl-abrc.ca/mini-site-page/carl-2017-spring-meeting/>

ICBPL 2017: 19th International Conference on Books, Publishing, and Libraries

ICBPL aims to bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and research scholars to exchange and share their experiences and research results on all aspects of books, publishing and libraries. It also provides a premier interdisciplinary platform for researchers, practitioners and educators to present and discuss the most recent innovations, trends, and concerns as well as practical challenges encountered and solutions adopted in their fields.

May 19–20, 2017

Dubai, UAE

<https://www.waset.org/conference/2017/05/dubai/ICBPL>

106. Deutscher Bibliothekartag: Medien – Menschen – Märkte

The theme of the Congress is “Media, People, Markets.” The Bibliothekartag is the central training event for the librarians and staff of information institutions and many other information specialists. Librarians, information professionals and people of other specialties within libraries see themselves as space between social and media change while keeping pace with the new requirements of their target groups and with the market conditions which have not kept pace with changes in digitization.

May 30–June 2, 2017

Frankfurt am Main, Germany

<http://bibliothekartag2017.de/kongress/grusswort-veranstalter/?lang=en>

ABJS/VJBS 2017 Annual Conference (Association des Bibliothèques Juridiques Suisses/Vereinigung der Juristischen Bibliotheken der Schweiz)

June 1–2, 2017

Lucerne, Switzerland

http://lawlibraries.ch/?page_id=1340&lang=fr

BIALL Annual Conference (British & Irish Association of Law Librarians)

The 2017 focus is “Together or apart? Effective ways of working.” Conference programs will explore different working practices and working relationships, training techniques, tech solutions and the role of professional networks, as well as the Brexit vote and its potential impact.

June 8–10, 2017

Manchester, UK

<http://www.biall.org.uk/pages/manchester-2017-together-or-apart-effective-ways-of-working.html>

Third International Conference on Interdisciplinary Legal Studies 2017

The Conference is an opportunity for academics, practitioners, PhD students to come together, exchange ideas, and discuss emerging issues in Interdisciplinary Legal Studies. Best papers will have an opportunity to forward to several leading international journals. Case studies, abstracts of research in progress, as well as full research papers will be considered for presentation at the conference. However, only complete papers will be published in the proceedings.

June 9–11, 2017

Toronto, Canada

<http://legalconference.org/>

Association des Bibliothécaires de France : 63^e congrès de l'ABF

The theme is Inégalités territoriales et égalité des chances.

June 15–17, 2017

Paris, France

<https://www.abf.asso.fr/2/160/641/ABF/63e-congres-de-l-abf-a-paris-du-15-au-17-juin-2017>

SLA 2017 Annual Conference (Special Libraries Association)

Special librarians and other information professionals come together at SLA's annual conferences to network, learn best practices and share ideas. SLA 2017 attendees will hear firsthand about the latest technological advances and innovations and discover how they can benefit from them and effectively implement them in their own organizations.

June 16–20, 2017

Phoenix, Arizona, USA

<http://www.sla.org/attend/sla-2017-annual-conference/>

International Association of University Libraries (IATUL)

38th Annual IATUL Conference: Embedding Libraries - Service and Development in Context

IATUL's annual conference provides members and other interested professionals with the opportunity to discuss current issues facing tertiary education libraries. With its variety of services, managerial responsibilities, incorporating treasures from the past into the digital world, connecting continuity with innovation, and preparing our patrons for the challenges in a networked information society, the modern university library is a cosmos in itself. It remains, however, part of the university, and is always linked to the service requirements of its members and goals set by the university management. Therefore, the library's mandate and all our endeavours are primarily embedded in the university's strategic processes, along with library services resulting from our mission.

June 18–22, 2017

Bolzano, South Tyrol, Italy

<https://iatulevents.ub.tum.de/ocs/index.php/bozen2017/bozen2017>

ALA Annual Conference

June 22–27, 2017

Chicago, Illinois, USA

<http://2017.alaannual.org/>

OR2017: Twelfth International Conference on Open Repositories

The annual Open Repositories Conference brings together users and developers of open digital repository platforms from higher education, government, galleries, libraries, archives and museums. The Conference provides an interactive forum for delegates from around the world to come together and explore the global challenges and opportunities facing libraries and the broader scholarly information landscape.

June 26–30, 2017

Brisbane, Australia

<https://or2017.net/>

Sixth Workshop on Legal Informatics and Legal Information Technology (LIT 2017)/20th International Conference on Business Information Systems

The 6th Legal Informatics and Legal Information Technology Workshop is planned to be a multi-disciplinary workshop that will bring together practitioners and researchers to investigate challenges and opportunities in the emerging trends on the verge of law and IT. The workshop will examine vital issues, including law-related business processes, legal ontologies, description frameworks, discussing new researches and innovative applications in Law, Information Technology as well as legal application domains (tax, commercial, insurance law).

June 28–30, 2017

Poznań, Poland

<http://bis.kie.ue.poznan.pl/bis2017/workshops/lit-2017/>

CILIP Conference 2017: Chartered Institute of Library and Information Professionals

The CILIP Conference attracts Library and Information Professionals from across the UK and overseas, from a wide range of sectors from Public to Health and Academic to Government. It will cover key issues from across the library, information and knowledge professions. Opening keynote speaker at the 2017 Conference is Dr Carla Hayden, Librarian of Congress.

July 5–6, 2017

University of Manchester, UK

<http://cilipconference.org.uk/>

Forty-sixth LIBER Annual Conference: Association of European Research Libraries/ Ligue des Bibliothèques Européennes de Recherche

Theme is Libraries Powering Sustainable Knowledge in the Digital Age. As the idea that we should move towards a more open approach to conducting and disseminating research takes hold it is incumbent on libraries to ensure that in this shifting environment that the accessibility, usability, and long term availability of research outcomes are taken care of.

July 5–7, 2017

University of Patras, Greece

<http://liber2017.lis.upatras.gr/>

Fifteenth International Conference on Books, Publishing & Libraries (Books, Publishing & Libraries Research Network)

Special Focus for 2017 is “The Publisher Is Dead; Long Live the Publisher!” Additional themes include Publishing Practices: Past, Present, and Future; Reading, Writing, Literacy, and Learning; and Books and Libraries.

July 7, 2017

Imperial College London, UK

<http://booksandpublishing.com/2017-conference>

ICQQL 2017: 19th International Conference on Qualitative and Quantitative Methods in Libraries

The ICQQL 2017: 19th International Conference on Qualitative and Quantitative Methods in Libraries aims to bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and research scholars to exchange and share their experiences and research results on all aspects of qualitative and quantitative methods in libraries. It also provides a premier interdisciplinary platform for researchers, practitioners and educators to present and discuss the most recent innovations, trends, and concerns as well as practical challenges encountered and solutions adopted in their fields.

July 13–14, 2017

Stockholm, Sweden

<https://www.waset.org/conference/2017/07/stockholm/ICQQL>

American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Annual Meeting

AALL 2017 will celebrate the innovators within the law library profession and highlight the skills, talents, and attributes that provide added value and meaning for library organizations.

July 15–18, 2017

Austin, Texas, USA

<http://www.aallnet.org/conference/>

ACM SIGIR 40th International Conference on Research and Development in Information Retrieval (Special Interest Group on Information Retrieval)

SIGIR is the premier international forum for the presentation of new research results and for the demonstration of new systems and techniques in information retrieval. The conference consists of five days of full papers, short papers, demonstrations, tutorials and workshops focused on research and development in the area of information retrieval.

August 7–11, 2017

Tokyo, Japan

<http://sigir.org/sigir2017/>

American Bar Association (ABA) Annual Meeting

August 10–15, 2017

New York, NY, USA

<http://www.americanbar.org/portals/annual-meeting.html>

ICLS 2017: 19th International Conference on Library Science

The ICLS 2017: 19th International Conference on Library Science aims to bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and research scholars to exchange and share their experiences and research results about all aspects of Library Science. It also provides the premier interdisciplinary forum for researchers, practitioners and educators to present and discuss the most recent innovations, trends, and concerns, practical challenges encountered and the solutions adopted in the field of Library Science.

August 17–18, 2017

Copenhagen, Denmark

<https://www.waset.org/conference/2017/08/copenhagen/ICLS>

International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions83rd IFLA World Library and Information Congress

The IFLA World Library and Information Congress is the international flagship professional and trade event for the library and information services sector.

It brings together over 3,500 participants from more than 120 countries. It sets the international agenda for the profession and offers opportunities for networking and professional development to all delegates. The Law Libraries Section, meeting jointly with the Subject Analysis and Access Sections, has a theme of “Optimizing Subject Access to Legal Resources: Solidarity in Divergence.” Deadline for proposals is March 17, 2017.

August 19–25, 2017

Wroclaw, Poland

<http://2017.ifla.org/>

LIS 2017: International Conference on Library and Information Science

LIS 2017 aims to offer a forum for scholars, educators, LIS practitioners and professionals from different countries to share research achievements and to establish research network and to find global partners for future collaboration.

August 23–25, 2017

Sapporo, Japan

<http://soci-science.org/LIS/#cfp>

EGOVIS 2017: 6th International Conference on Electronic Government and the Information Systems Perspective

A part of DEXA 2017 Conferences and Workshops, with a theme of Technology-Enabled Innovation for Democracy, Government and Governance. The international conference cycle EGOVIS focuses on information systems aspects of e-government. Information systems are a core enabler for electronic government/governance in all its dimensions: e-administration, e-democracy, e-participation and e-voting. Each year EGOVIS brings together experts from academia, public administrations and industry to discuss e-government information systems from different perspectives and disciplines, i.e. technology, policy and/or governance and public administration.

August 28–31, 2017

Lyon, France

<http://www.dexa.org/egovis2017>

ESIL 2017: 13th Annual Conference of the European Society of International Law

Global Public Goods, Global Commons and Fundamental Values: The Responses of International Law. The 2017 ESIL Annual Conference will explore how international law responds to global public goods, global commons and fundamental values, examining the responses in a wide range of fields. It will also explore the legal foundation of such interests in international law. In addition, the conference will focus on whether and how it is appropriate that international law intervenes to regulate such interests, taking into account the interplay between multiple actors of international law, ranging from states, international and regional organizations and non-state actors.

September 7–9, 2017

Naples, Italy

<http://www.esil-sedi.eu/node/1469>

AoIR 2017: 18th Annual Meeting of the Association of Internet Researchers

AoIR 2017 is the 18th annual conference of the Association of Internet Researchers, a transdisciplinary gathering of scholars interested in the place of networked technologies in social processes. Theme for 2017 is “Networked Publics.” AoIR 2017 will provide an opportunity to discuss the emergence of networked or digital publics, and their possible role in re-constituting the public sphere.

October 18–21, 2017

University of Tartu, Estonia

<http://aoir.org/aoir2017/>

IALL 36th Annual Course: Civil Rights, Human Rights, and Other Critical Topics in U.S. Law

October 21–26, 2017

Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, USA

<http://iall.org/annual-conference-2/>

ALA-ICA Annual Conference 2017: International Council on Archives (ICA) and Asociación Latinoamericana de Archivos

Title for the annual conference is “Archives, Citizenship and Interculturalism,” and themes include human rights, illicit trafficking of documentary heritage, access to information and personal data protection, and copyright and intellectual property.

November 27–29, 2017

Mexico City, Mexico

<http://www.ica.org/en/annual-conference-2017>

2018

American Bar Association (ABA) Midyear Meeting

January 31–February 6, 2018

Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

<http://www.americanbar.org/content/dam/aba/administrative/tips/upcoming-meetings.authcheckdam.pdf>