A STUDY OF THE KANURI LANGUAGE

Grammar and Vocabulary

By JOHANNES LUKAS

12s. 6d. net

Kanuri is the main language spoken in Bornu Province, Northern Nigeria, and is understood over a wide area. The vocabulary provided contains the commonest Kanuri words, and texts, with translations, are given. With the help of this Grammar and Vocabulary it should be possible for any European to read and analyse Kanuri texts. A practical and simple orthography on the principles recommended by the International Institute of African Languages and Cultures has been adopted, and, wherever possible, corresponds with that used in Bargery's Hansa Dictionary.

A TRIBAL SURVEY OF MONGALLA
PROVINCE

By Members of the Province Staff and of the Church Missionary Society

Edited by L. F. NALDER

15s. net

This book is the result of co-ordinated research on the comparatively untouched tribes inhabiting the extreme south of the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan by officials and missionaries working in the area. Not only does it amplify existing information but provides authoritative accounts of several tribes, such as the Topotha and Moru, about whom little or nothing has hitherto been published. A feature of the book is that the contributors almost without exception possess an intimate knowledge of the languages of the tribes with which they deal.
