

cratic Party, has been a visiting professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The University of Pittsburgh has a number of professors resident in Quito under the AID-financed contract between the University of Pittsburgh and the Central University of Quito. Participating professors are D. Jay Doubleday, department of public administration; Thomas A. Hart, department of education; Murdo MacLeod, history department; Roger Nett, department of sociology; Wendell G. Schaeffer, dean of the University of Pittsburgh faculties in Ecuador; and Paul E. Watson, department of education.

Albert Schatz is a visiting professor in the Washington University Graduate Institute of Education from the University of Espirito Santo in Vitoria, Brazil.

Javier Villanueva, director of the Torcuato Di Tella Institute in Buenos Aires, will be at St. Antony's Centre for Latin American Studies, Oxford, for three months beginning in September 1966.

Lawrence Witt, agricultural economist at Michigan State University, is in Brazil from January–July 1966 on behalf of the Midwest Universities Consortium for International Activities, Inc. He is examining the possibility of the Consortium's participation in a development program in the Planalto region of Central Brazil.

Ramón Xirau, literary critic and editor of Diálogos, Mexico, is spending the term at Oxford University, England.

---

Fredrick B. Pike, professor of Latin American history, University of Pennsylvania, is one of President Johnson's six new appointments to the Board of Foreign Scholarships. Under the terms of the appointment he will serve until September 1968. The Board supervises the educational exchange programs administered by the Department of State under the Fulbright-Hays Act and certain exchanges administered by the Office of Education under the same legislation.

NEW AND SUSPENDED PERIODICAL PUBLICATIONS ON LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

Aconcagua

Published quarterly by Centro Europeo de Documentación e Información, Esparteros, 1., Madrid-12, Spain

Editor: Georg von Gaupp-Berghausen

Primer número: First quarter 1965

A magazine of politics, culture, and economics for Spanish- and Germanlanguage speaking countries. Spanish/German versions of all the contents are given.

Latin American Research Review

Boletín de la Integración

Published monthly by the Instituto para la Integración de América Latina of the IDB, Casilla de Correo 39, Sucursal 1, Buenos Aires, Argentina

Director: R. Alberto Calvo

Primer número: diciembre 1965

The journal contains articles, news items, and bibliography on the process of integration in Latin America.

Centro

Published twice a year by the Centro de Estudios Latinoamericanos of the City College of the City University of New York

Editor: Antonio García Copado

Primer número: junio 1965

Los Compañeros

Published monthly by the Agency for International Development, Partners of the Alliance Programs, AID, Washington, D.C. 20523

First Issue: February 1966

This is a newsletter designed to highlight activities of the Partners of the Alliance for Progress throughout the hemisphere.

Diálogos

Published six times a year at Insurgentes Sur 594–302

México 12, D.F.

Director: José Emilio Pacheco

Primer número: noviembre–diciembre 1964

Diálogos is a magazine of the letters and arts.

Hispanic American Historical Review (change in editorial offices)

Published quarterly by Duke University Press with editorial offices in department of history, Indiana University, Bloomington 47401.

Managing Editor: Robert E. Quirk

Investigaciones En Progreso En Colombia

Published quarterly by the Escuela Interamericana de Bibliotecología de la Universidad de Antioquia, Medellín, Colombia

Editor: Edgar Córdoba M.

Primer número: marzo 1966

This publication will seek to survey all institutions and persons conducting research in Colombia for the purpose of indicating the nature of topics under investigation and of stimulating better communication and coordination of efforts among Colombian researchers.

Latin American Digest

Published bi-monthly by the Center for Latin American Studies, Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona 85281

Editor: Marvin Alisky

First issue: Autumn 1966

This will be a four-page printed summary of political and economic highlights in Latin America.

Mundus

Published quarterly by Wissenschaftliche Verlagsgesellschaft M.B.H.

Editorial Office Mundus, Landhausstrasse 18, 74 Tübingen, Germany

Editor: Jürgen Hohnholz

First issue: August 27, 1965

This is a quarterly review of German research contributions on Asia, Africa, and Latin America with contents in English.

New World Quarterly

Published quarterly by New World Group Ltd., P.O. Box 221, University of the West Indies, Mona, Kingston 7, Jamaica, West Indies

Editor: 12-man editorial board

First issue: 1965

This is a journal of political and economic commentary on the Caribbean.

Revista Del Folklore Ecuatoriano

Published annually by the Instituto Ecuatoriano de Folklore

Apartado 2140, Quito, Ecuador

Director: Paulo de Carvalho-Neto

Primer número: octubre 1965

The Revista contains articles on the folklore of Ecuador, a bibliography of Ecuadorian folklore, and news of the IEF.

Revista Interamericana de Ciencias Sociales* (suspended publication)

Published irregularly by the Department of Social Affairs, PAU,

Washington, D.C. 20006

Director: Luis Olivos

The Department of Social Affairs reports that publication of the Revista has been suspended during the present fiscal year.

Revista Geográfica* (revised publication)

Published twice a year by the Comissão de Geografia of the Instituto Pan-Americano de Geografia e História, Av. Franklin Roosevelt, 39-S 1414,

Latin American Research Review

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Presidente: Nilo Bernardes

First revised issue: Spring 1966, No. 63

Revista Geográfica, with its renovated editorial and visual format, consists of original papers, commentaries on published works, abstracts and reviews, and news of geographical activities on the continent.

The Times of the Americas

Published weekly by The Times of Havana Publishing Company

35 N.E. 17th St., Miami, Fla. 33132

Editor: Carl E. Moore

First issue: January 26, 1966

The newspaper supersedes the former Times of Havana.

LIBRARIES AND ARCHIVES

Acquisition of Américo Castro Library—The University of California in San Diego acquired in 1964 a 10,000 volume library of Américo Castro, which includes both rare and modern books.

Bibliografía Ecuatoriana—Libros Ecuatorianos began operations in Cuenca, Ecuador, in 1964 to promote the diffusion of the national bibliography in other countries. The organization can furnish ancient or modern books by Ecuadorian or foreign authors edited in Ecuador, and it can provide bibliographical information about any subject related to Ecuador. Miguel Díaz Cueva is director of Libros Ecuatorianos. Information may be obtained by writing him at Apartado 3, Cuenca, Ecuador.

Bibliographies of Aboriginal Central America—Jorge A. Lines, University of Costa Rica; Michael Olien, University of Oregon; and Edwin M. Shook, a staff member of the Central American Field Program of the Associated Colleges of the Midwest have prepared a bibliography of materials on Central American archaeology, ethnohistory, ethnology, linguistics, folklore, and physical anthropology. The titles are: Bibliografía antropológica aborigen de Panama (de Costa Rica, de Nicaragua, de Honduras, de El Salvador, de Guatemala y British Honduras). The bibliographies are being published at the rate of one a month beginning in December 1965. Copies or further information can be obtained by writing the publisher: Tropical Science Center, Apartado 2732, San Jose, Costa Rica.

Bibliographies of Anthropology and Urban Process—Michael Olien, University of Oregon, is preparing two bibliographies which are expected to be