Legal Theory

Editors

Matthew D. Adler, Duke University, USA

Larry Alexander, University of San Diego Law School, USA

David O. Brink, University of California, San Diego, USA

Scott J. Shapiro, Yale Law School, USA

Legal Theory draws contributions not only from academic law, but from a wide range of related disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, including philosophy, political science, economics, history and sociology. Topics covered fall mainly into the broad categories of analytical and normative jurisprudence, doctrinal theory, policy analyses of legal doctrines and critical theories of law.

American Society for Legal History

The American Society for Legal History is a nonprofit membership organization dedicated to fostering scholarship, teaching, and study concerning the law and institutions of all legal systems, both Anglo-American and international. Founded in 1956, the Society sponsors Law and History Review and Studies in Legal History, a series of book-length monographs available to ASLH members at substantial discounts. In addition, the Society holds an annual meeting to promote scholarship and interaction among scholars, practitioners, and students interested in legal history, and maintains a website (<http://www.aslh.net>) reporting developments in the field. For further information concerning the Society, please write: Sally Hadden, Department of History, Western Michigan University, 4301 Friedmann Hall, Kalamazoo, MI 49008-5334, USA.

To become a member of the Society or to renew your membership please complete, print out, and mail the following form to: Cambridge University Press, Attention: Customer Services, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, NY 10994-2133, USA; or print it out and fax it to: 845-353-4141.
