MEN, WOMEN, AND MONEY IN SEYCHELLES

by Marion Benedict and Burton Benedict

Two distinct approaches combine to add particular insight to this study of the society of Seychelles. Marion Benedict's Part One, an evocation in the form of a novella of an individual Seychelles woman's daily experiences, complements and illuminates Burton Benedict's Part Two, a traditional ethnography of the island nation. $24.50, illustrated

THE POLITICS OF DIVINATION

by Eugene L. Mendonsa

Divination in Sisala-land in northern Ghana is a religious ritual, but as this intriguing study shows, it is also a means of social control. Mendonsa shows that elders effectively use the divinatory process as an exercise of personal and social power, to control their subordinates and to reinforce their own authority. His conclusions demonstrate that Sisala divination is a method of symbolic management and control of social reality. $28.50, illustrated

PERSONAL RULE IN BLACK AFRICA

Prince, Autocrat, Prophet, Tyrant

by Robert H. Jackson and Carl G. Rosberg

"This fascinating study of African governance since Independence scrutinizes a neglected area of political analysis, focusing on the importance of individual leadership styles rather than social, cultural and economic variables."—Foreign Affairs $10.95

Three new titles in Perspectives on Southern Africa

AFRIKANER POLITICAL THOUGHT

Analysis and Documents, Volume 1: 1780–1850

by André du Toit and Hermann Giliomee

This is the first volume in a major effort to present in English the essential documents of Afrikaner political thought. Here the editors assemble and analyze politically significant discussions and disputes among early Afrikaner settlers, and between them and colonial authorities. Volume 22, $35.00

THE HOUSE OF PHALO

A History of the Xhosa People in the Days of Their Independence

by J. B. Peires

In this first modern history of the Xhosa, Peires relates the story of one of the most numerous and important indigenous people in contemporary South Africa. He covers their consolidation, an interlude of cooperation and conflict with whites, and the wars that led to their subordination in the modern South African state. Volume 32. $27.50, illustrated

EDUCATION, RACE, AND SOCIAL CHANGE IN SOUTH AFRICA

Edited by John A. Marcum

This book provides a concise overview of South African higher education and its politics and concludes with suggestions for actions the U.S. government, corporations, foundations, and universities might take to further higher education of South African blacks. Volume 34. $25.00

ON THE CUTTING EDGE OF HISTORICAL RESEARCH

Methods developed in African history are just beginning to be used by historians of other world areas.

Those methods—including linguistics, oral traditions, textual evaluation, comparative historical and historiographical research—are the major concern of African historians and of historians everywhere.

HISTORY IN AFRICA is an essential companion to any contemporary historical bookshelf.

$15 per volume, plus postage and handling.

HISTORY IN AFRICA: A JOURNAL OF METHOD
Professor David Henige, Editor

The Transfer of Power in Africa

Decolonization 1940-1960
edited by Prosser Gifford and
Wm. Roger Louis

This enlightening volume deals with decolonization in Africa from native, metropolitan, and international perspectives. It explains how in some cases colonial policies led to the peaceful transfer of authority and in others the transfer was marked by violence and a clean break with the colonial past. Included are chapters on British and French West Africa, East Africa, the Belgian Congo, Portuguese Africa, and South Africa. $35.00

John X. Merriman

Paradoxical South African Statesman
Phyllis Lewsen

This first comprehensive biography of Merriman, the most influential liberal statesman in the Cape Colony and its last prime minister is "a stirring story, told with meticulous regard for detail and accuracy."—Rene de Villiers,
Johannesburg Star $40.00

Genocide

Its Political Use in the Twentieth Century
Leo Kuper

Combining human concern with a broad historical background and legal skills, Kuper examines all the aspects of the question of genocide, with case studies including the fate of the Hutu in Africa. $15.00

Ideology and Development in Africa

Crawford Young

"This volume... assesses the performance of African states of varied ideologies in economic growth, distribution, self-reliance, human dignity, participation, and societal capacity.... This stimulating book lays very useful groundwork for the central task of this decade: the need to redefine economic, social and political development beyond current political ideologies."
—Foreign Affairs A Council on Foreign Relations Book $29.95

New Paperbounds

Class and Economic Change in Kenya

The Making of an African Petite-Bourgeoisie, 1905-1970

AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION

THE AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION was organized in 1957 as a non-profit membership corporation to bring together persons with a scholarly and professional interest in Africa, to provide useful services to the Africanist community, and to publish and distribute appropriate scholarly and informational materials. Membership is open to individuals and institutions.

AN ANNUAL MEETING in the Fall provides an occasion for panels, plenary sessions and discussion groups, exhibits and films. Participants from America, Africa and Europe gather for this Meeting which is held in different regions of the U.S. each year, in cooperation with major colleges, universities and museums, and under the program direction of a distinguished Africanist. The annual business meeting of the members of the ASA takes place at that time.

MEMBERS RECEIVE THREE REGULAR PUBLICATIONS:

AFRICAN STUDIES REVIEW: Prints review articles and essays of scholarly and bibliographical substance. Incorporates the former ASA REVIEW OF BOOKS, maintaining its critical evaluation of significant Africanist publications. Edited by R. Hunt Davis, Jr. and Melvin E. Page.

ISSUE: A JOURNAL OF OPINION: Presents provocative and timely comment on critical developments in Africa and African studies. Guest edited by distinguished scholars and professionals. Recent editions have focussed on the Second Republic of Nigeria (C.S. Whitaker) and the Reconstruction of Zimbabwe (L. Suransky and A. Mazrui).

ASA NEWS: Reports current and future activities of the Association, bibliographical and news notes, employment notices, significant correspondence and announcements of concern to the world community of Africanists.

DUES: INSTITUTIONS: $48 domestic; $55 overseas surface; $90 overseas airmail.

DUES: INDIVIDUALS: $40 regular and sustaining members earning over $20,000 per year; $30 regular and sustaining members earning less than $20,000 per year; $15 student, retired and unemployed (3 year limit); $80 airmail (for addresses outside North America). Sustaining membership is available upon request after three years of consecutive regular membership. Sustaining members receive complimentary registration at annual meetings and can stand for election.
