A Representative Psychiatrist:
the Career, Contributions and Legacies of Sir Aubrey Lewis

Cambridge University Press

Published in association with The Bethlem Royal Hospital and The Maudsley Hospital

Sir Aubrey Lewis (1900–1975) was the outstanding psychiatrist of his generation. These two eponymous lectures outline his background and professional career, his personal impact, his scientific work, his writings and his administrative achievements. The significance of his work for psychological medicine to-day is discussed.

Front cover: Portrait of Sir Aubrey Lewis by Ruskin Spear (1966).
