A Digital Library of Images for Research and Study

The ARTstor Digital Library enables scholars, teachers, educators, and students to teach and study with more than one million images in the arts, architecture, humanities, social sciences, and beyond. Important collections include Magnum Photos, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, The Museum of Modern Art, Ezra Stoller Archive of Modern Architecture, Erich Lessing Culture and Fine Arts Archives, Scala Archives, and QTVR Panoramas of World Architecture. Other significant collections include Modern Latin American Art, Ferguson-Royce: Pre-Columbian Photography, and Cuban Heritage (University of Miami Libraries). Ongoing contributions from dozens of other collaborators, such as Alka Patel: South Asian and Cuban Art and Architecture and the Carnegie Institution of Washington Mayan Excavations, will add 900,000 new images to the Digital Library.

Editor

Christopher Clapham, University of Cambridge, UK

The Journal of Modern African Studies surveys developments in modern African politics and society. Its main emphasis is on current issues in African politics, economies, societies and international relations. Editorial policy avoids commitment to any political viewpoint or ideology, but aims at a fair examination of controversial issues.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial Policy

The Journal of Latin American Studies is published four times a year, in February, May, August and November. Its editorial offices are located at the Institute for the Study of the Americas, University of London. The editorial board comprises area studies specialists based in the United Kingdom from all the principal social science disciplines, including history.

The Journal aims to publish recent research in the field of Latin American studies in economics, geography, politics, international relations, sociology, social anthropology, and history. Articles on literature and the arts are not normally included, but the editors are pleased to consider contributions in the field of intellectual and cultural history. Articles with an inter-disciplinary approach are particularly welcome.

Manuscript Submission

Articles submitted to the Journal should be original contributions. They should not be under consideration by another journal, nor have been published or be awaiting publication elsewhere. Translations of articles that have already been published will not be accepted. If an author is publishing a closely related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated in a cover note to the editors. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper.

Articles must be no longer than 12,000 words, including footnotes, tables etc. The Journal is published in English, but articles may also be submitted in Spanish or Portuguese for peer review; if accepted for publication, the responsibility for translating articles rests with the author. The Journal's preference is that manuscripts should be submitted electronically as a Word document, with double spacing throughout and margins of at least one inch all round. All pages must be numbered consecutively. In order to ensure the anonymity of the reviewing process, care should be taken to ensure that any references which might identify the author are removed from the text. The title page should be separate from the main body of the text and include the author's name, academic post and institutional affiliation, the title of the article, and brief acknowledgements. An abstract of no more than 100 words, together with a list of key words, should appear at the beginning of the article.

The Journal publishes commissioned book reviews in each issue. Not all books received can be reviewed and editorial policy gives preference to reviews of books regarded as of major importance for the disciplines covered by the Journal. Unsolicited reviews cannot be considered.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

Articles for consideration and all editorial correspondence should be addressed to: The Editors, Journal of Latin American Studies, Institute for the Study of the Americas, 31 Tavistock Square, London WC1H 9HA, UK, and sent to <jas@sas.ac.uk>.

Proofs

Proofs of accepted articles will be sent to authors as pdf files for checking and correction of typesetting errors. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Offprints

Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article and a copy of the issue in which their article appears.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
