

SSHA Graduate Student Prize

The Social Science History Association is pleased to offer a $500 prize, to be awarded biennially, for the best article by a graduate student published in the association's official journal, Social Science History. The prize, to be awarded at the association's annual fall meeting, also includes a stipend of up to $250 to cover the recipient's travel expenses to the conference, as well as a one-year subscription to Social Science History.

The American Historical Review

Founded in 1884 and chartered by Congress in 1889, The American Historical Review's mission is to engage the interests of the entire discipline of history. Aligning with the American Historical Association's mission, AHR is unparalleled in its efforts to choose articles that are new in content and interpretation and make a contribution to historical knowledge.

... the only American journal that brings together scholarship from every major field of historical study.

Published five times a year.
