FORCES OF CHANGE IN THE MIDDLE EAST . . .

This book presents not only the current unrest being faced by the Middle East, but also the problems of change taking place within Israel and the Arab States today.

With valuable contributions from Professors of Political Science and Middle Eastern Studies, this volume has delved into concepts such as political modernization, economic development and social change. The difficulty of change in these states has been analyzed in this book and presented to you by competent and extremely knowledgeable scholars in this field.
