SLAVIC REVIEW ON LINE

A More Powerful Teaching and Research Tool

Upon publication of each new number of Slavic Review, the articles from the preceding issue will be placed on the internet utilizing the 'Gopher' and 'World Wide Web' nets. The access protocol from Telnet:

gopher ccat.sas.upenn.edu Select Elec Pub & Res, then #21, Slavic Review
or, for World Wide Web

lynx <http://ccat.sas.upenn.edu/slavrev/slavrev.html>

(Those with Netscape or Mosaic software can view the graphic components [e.g., maps and figures] of Slavic Review by accessing the WWW through either program, using the address above without the "lynx" preface.)

For America On-Line subscribers, use the keyword 'gopher', then select 'Search All Gophers'. Type 'slavic review' into the Veronica search option.

Please see inside front cover, last paragraph, for copyright exclusions. The previous issue is now on line. Please send your comments, suggestions and advice to users to us at: slavrev@sas.upenn.edu

TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted by post or courier service in four double-spaced typed copies. (If computer generated, they should be letter quality or near letter quality. Continuous form sheets must be separated.) Notes and block quotations should be double-spaced; notes should be placed at the end of the manuscript and not at the bottoms of pages. Library of Congress transliteration for quotations of fewer than 50 words and the Chicago Manual of Style are to be followed. In general, articles should not exceed 30 typed pages 8½" by 11" in dimension—including endnotes.

Manuscripts are sent to outside readers in anonymous form and should be prepared accordingly.

The policy of Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere. Please consult us in advance of submitting an uninvited book review.

Publication of articles in Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to those submitted by members of AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts will be sent a manuscript application; please see the inside front cover for information on membership.
