The American Society of International Law

The American Society of International Law was organized in 1906 "to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice."

Society membership is open to all persons of whatever nationality and profession who are interested in its objectives. Dues are: regular, $70; special category, $30 for persons not resident in a member country of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development; intermediate, $30; student, $20. Membership application form is printed at the back of each issue of AJIL.
