announces

EARLY CHINESE TEXTS: A BIBLIOGRAPHICAL GUIDE

Edited by MICHAEL LOEWE

This book will include descriptive notices on sixty-four literary works written or compiled before the end of the Han dynasty. Contributions by leading scholars from the United States and Europe summarize the subject matter and contents, present conclusions regarding authorship, authenticity and textual history, and indicate outstanding problems that await solution. Each item is supported by lists of traditional and modern editions, commentaries, translations and research aids. Publication is planned for the late spring, 1993. The book will be available from the Institute of East Asian Studies, Berkeley, for $35, and in Europe through Sinobiblia for £20 (or the equivalent ECU).

Birdtrack Press

We specialize in setting the type for sinological publications integrating Chinese characters with alphabetic text: Birdtrack Press offers camera-ready copy of good quality at reasonable cost. We know how to include the special features sinologists require, such as non-standard diacritics and custom characters. We can meet publishers' page specifications, and are happy to discuss technical issues with design and production staff. We also work directly with authors, an arrangement becoming more common as some scholarly publishers seek authors' help in containing costs; Birdtrack Press ensures professional results through its expertise and experience in sinological computing and typography.
